APPROPRIATION REPORT

ON

THE ACCOUNTS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE

FOR 1908-09.

(NOTE.—Throughout this report the figures given are, unless otherwise indicated, in thousands of Rupees omitting 000.)

General.

The Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore decided last year to publish the Appropriation Report in the Government Gazette, and the Report for 1907-08 was accordingly published in the Mysore Gazette of the 21st October 1909. The Report for 1908-09 is now published. The object of publishing the report in the Gazette is to throw open the financial transactions of the State as finally revised, for the information of the public who may thus study the policy of Government and the progress of the State in the important department of finance.

2. This report, it may be explained, is in the nature of a review. It reviews the actual receipt and expenditure for the year to which it relates as recorded in the finally closed accounts of the Comptroller. The review is twofold. In the first place, the actual figures in the final accounts are compared with the corresponding figures in the detailed budget estimates and the excess or deficiency explained in each case as far as possible. In the second place, the actual figures for the year are compared with the actual figures of the preceding year and the course of the head of revenue and expenditure briefly discussed, the rise or fall being explained.

3. The Public Works, the Railway, and the Cauvery Power Scheme are treated in this review in the same way as other heads. The importance of these heads, however, and the various causes which affect the receipt and expenditure under them demand a closer and more detailed review. For this reason separate reviews with detailed statistics and explanatory memoranda are prepared for these heads and printed under the designation of Finance Accounts. Those who require more information regarding those heads of accounts than what is contained in this report are referred to those accounts.

General Review.

4. The Budget Estimate for 1908-09, which was framed on the assumption that the year would be a normal one, provided for a small surplus of 16, exclusive of the Net Revenue from the Cauvery Power Scheme. The failure of the south-west monsoon and the partial failure of the north-east during the year changed the situation; and instead of the anticipated surplus of 16 there was a large deficit of 2,90 as shown below. If, however, the Cauvery Power Revenue and Expenditure are taken into account, the total receipts and expenditure balance each other.

	Excluding the Cauvery Power Scheme		Including the Cauvery Power Scheme

5. The year 1908-09 was preceded by a succession of agriculturally bad years, but in framing the budget estimates it was hoped that the rainfall of the year would be good and the prospects normal. Before, however, the year was three months old, the prospects became very disappointing. With the failure of the monsoons the situation looked gloomy; and by the close of October 1908 the scarcity which was already being felt in some parts of the State became acute and wide-spread. It was apprehended that famine conditions might be reached if the subsequent north-east monsoon did not improve the situation. The financial position was accordingly fully reviewed and the budget programme of the year revised to suit the altered prospects of revenue and expenditure. As remissions and suspensions of land revenue were to form the important weapons of combating the distress at the beginning, the Land Revenue estimates were recast with reference to the latest information available and to past experience. And on the expenditure side provision was made for the issue of Takavi advances on a liberal scale and for various other measures for the relief of the agricultural and the non-agricultural classes of the population. As the result of this re-adjustment of the budget programme the total revenue was calculated to stand about 16 lakhs lower, and the total expenditure about two lakhs higher, than in the original budget estimates.

6. Fortunately the north-east monsoon, which was disappointing at its commencement, was mostly favourable at its close and after the Mungar showers of May 1909, the fears of a wide-spread famine were happily at an end. The agricultural situation, however, demanded remissions and suspensions of land revenue on a large scale. It also necessitated additional expenditure which was partly met by reduction of sanctioned grants and partly by additional grants.

7. With the exception of the Land Revenue, which fell by about 11 lakhs from the effects of the distress, and the Forest Revenue, which was worse by a little over 2 lakhs for reasons mentioned later on, the revenue under the other important heads exceeded the budget anticipations and the total actuals fell short of the total estimate by only 6,40. On the other hand, the expenditure heads showed a saving of 3,34 in the aggregate in spite of the additional expenditure necessitated by the distress. The net result was, as has been already stated, that the actual receipts fell short of the actual expenditure by 2,90, excluding the Cauvery Power transactions on both sides.

8. No important change in the classification was made during the year in regard to the Revenue and Expenditure.

9. The following gives the summary of the Budget and Account figures for the year 1908-09 which are reviewed in this report. The details will be found in the appended statement.

NOTE.—In this statement both the Budget and Account figures are net, i.e., on the revenue side the gross figures minus refunds are shown, while on the charge side the gross expenditure minus departmental receipts are given. The revenue from Salt has been deducted from miscellaneous expenditure as usual.

11. The important variations in the actuals as compared with the budget estimates are explained later on under the heads concerned.

Comparison with the year 1907-08.

	1907-08	1908-09	Difference More +, less —
Principal Heads of Revenue ...	1,81,17	1,63,51	—17,66

Cauvery Power Scheme ...	17,58	17,46	—12
Total ...	2,41,41	2,22,72	—18,69

The important variations under the Principal Heads of Revenue were the following :—

	1907-08	1908-09	Difference More +, less—
Land Revenue ...	1,03,80	89,16	—14,64
Forest ...	22,77	18,03	—4,74

Registration ...	1,49	1,72	+23
Total ...	1,81,17	1,63,51	—17,66

12. The very large decrease under Land Revenue was due chiefly to large remissions and suspensions granted on account of the distress and partly also to the collection in 1907-08 of about 3,00 of Revenue suspended in previous years. The fall under Forest was owing chiefly to the less rate secured for sandalwood and the less quantity of wood sold in consequence. The increase under Excise was mainly in the Toddy Revenue. The less realisation from Assessed Taxes was the result of the remissions granted and to a certain extent also of suspensions. The improvement in the Stamp and Registration Revenues was the result of greater activity as regards transfer of property and execution of documents which are generally associated in India with a year of unfavourable seasonal conditions.

Interest was worse by 1,40, and this was due partly to less recovery during the year of the interest on Loans and Advances and partly to the fact that the previous year's figure included the arrear interest for one half-year on 50 lakhs of Government paper.

The fall in the receipts of the Civil Department was the result of less receipts under Police and Medical chiefly owing to non-adjustment of a part of the seven-tenths share of the Railway Police recoverable from the Southern Mahratta Railway Company and of the contributions from Municipal and District Funds on account of Local Fund Dispensaries.

The Military receipts were more as the separate Hesarghatta and Nadamavinapura Grass Farm Fund, which was previously in existence, was abolished and the income from the Farms was credited directly to Government.

The improvement in the Railway revenue was the combined effect of increased traffic and of reduction in the amount of the surplus profits paid to the Southern Mahratta Railway Company; while that under Public Works was caused by the larger quantity of water supplied to the Kolar Gold Mines and by the recovery and credit of the contribution payable by the Bangalore City Municipality for the maintenance of the Chamarajendra Water Works.

13. A similar comparison as regards expenditure is made below :—

	1907-08	1908-09	Difference More +, less—
Direct Demands on Revenue ...	31,30	32,69	+1,39
Mining Revenue	1,98	1,99	+1
Interest	2,96	3,10	+14
Palace	19,40	19,40	...
Salaries and Expenses of Civil Departments ...	50,60	48,73	—1,87
Miscellaneous Civil Charges	48,94	47,75	—1,19
Military	12,90	14,15	+1,25
Famine Relief and Insurance	2,00	2,86	+86
State Railways Revenue Account	7,19	7,21	+2
Public Works Department, including Construction of Railways	32,37	30,27	—2,10
Cauvery Power Scheme	5,28	14,57	+9,29
Total ...	2,14,92	2,22,72	+7,80

14. Under Direct Demands on Revenue there were excesses in the charges for Land Revenue, Forest, Excise and Stamps, which were partly diminished by savings under Refunds and Drawbacks. Under Land Revenue the share of the Taluk Cutcherry Establishment charges debited to Law and Justice was smaller; the payment of grain compensation allowance also contributed to the excess. Against these there was a lapse in the grant for potgi allowance due to patels and shanbhogs in many places not having received their potgi allowance for 1908-09. Under Forest the excess was due to the larger outlay incurred on buildings and other works and the extensive timber operations of the Department. The small increase in the Excise expenditure was chiefly due to the absence of the permanent Excise Commissioner on leave and the acting arrangement made in consequence. The increase under Stamps was on account of the special purchase of paper for Stamps.

15. The small increase under Interest was chiefly in the amount of the interest paid to the State Life Insurance Fund, the balance in favour of which increases from year to year.

16. The reduction in the expenditure under Salaries and Expenses of the Civil Departments was due to the fact that in the previous year a special building grant of 5 lakhs was paid to the Indian Institute of Science (the Tata Institute) and to the reduction in the share of the Taluk Cutcherry Establishment debitable to Law and Justice mentioned in para 12. These savings were counterbalanced partly by the transfer of the Plague charges from Miscellaneous to Medical and partly by the additional expenditure incurred during the year in adapting the work of the Colleges and High Schools to the new University Regulations, in working up the new Sanitary scheme, and in improving the Experimental Cultivation and the Botanical Gardens.

17. The less charges under Miscellaneous, Civil charges, were due to the transfer of the Plague charges from this group, the less purchase of press Materials and Type and the lapse of the grant for the Bust and additional Statue of His Highness the late Maharaja.

18. Under Military the large excess was contributed by the increased grant sanctioned for Supplies and Services of the Imperial Service Regiment, the revision of the establishment of the Transport Corps, the increased charges for compensation for dearness of gram and ragi, and the inclusion under this head of the charge for the maintenance of the grass farms mentioned on the receipt side.

19. The excess of 86 over the normal Famine reserve of 2,00 represents the direct expenditure in connection with the distress.

20. There was less expenditure under Public Works and the decrease was chiefly under Irrigation and Railway (Capital works). The reduction is accounted for in the former case by the fact that some of the important works on which there was heavy outlay in the previous year approached completion during the year, and in the latter case to the smaller number of works undertaken during the year and to the decrease in the proportionate share of the General store balance debited to the State by the Company. Under Cauvery Power Scheme the large excess was on account of the formation of the Depreciation Fund in terms of Government Order No. 118-22—819-23, dated 1st February 1909.

Appropriation Audit.

21. No additional grant was sanctioned during the year excepting a small one of 15. The following statement shows the excess over budget grants still requiring sanction, for which additional allotments have not been made by re-appropriation :—

Major and minor heads of account	Amount of excess expenditure	Already sanctioned		Amount of excess requiring sanction	Remarks in explanation of excess
		Amount	Government Order No. and date
3. Forest— A. Conservancy and Works.	7	...	.....	7	Due to special shikar charges incurred during the year in connection with the visit of distinguished persons, Kumri cultivation, sinking of wells in Tumkur and other districts and also widening of existing demarcation.
4. Excise— Salaries (2), Establishment (1), Allowances (2) and Supplies and Services (5).	10	...	.....	10	Due to the grant of privilege leave to the Excise Commissioner and the grant of compensation allowance to the poor paid officials; also the larger quantity of liquor carried from Distillery to Bonded Depots.
8. Stamps— IV. Discount on sale of stamp papers and labels.	3	...	.....	3	The larger sale of stamps necessitated a larger amount of discount.
12. Interest on other obligations— 4 Refunds.	23	...	.....	23	Of this 19 was due to the adjustment made on account of a wrong credit in previous years' account, and 4 being the penal interest ordered to be written off in Government Order No. Fl. 4222-30—G. F. 302-08, dated 15th July 1909.
13. Profit or Loss— A. Loss on Investments	1	...	.....	1	The additional investment in Government of India securities made during the year brought in more interest which necessitated a greater amount of income—tax payment.
15. General administration— Staff and Household of H. H. the Maharaja (11), Govt. House, etc., and stables (18).	20	...	.....	20	There was an excess of 29 which was caused by the leave allowances of Mr. Maconochie and the adjustment during the year of bills of previous year relating to the entertainment of Indian guests, kept under objection. Of the above excess 9 was met by re-appropriation.
16A. Law and Justice—Courts of Law— Chief Court (6), Civil and Sessions Courts (4), Assistant Sessions and Sub-Judges Courts (1), Munsiff's Courts (1) and City Magistrates' Courts (1).	13	...	.....	13	Due to the appointment of a temporary fourth Judge to the Chief Court, the grant of combined leave to Mr. Plumer, the increase in the charges for batta to prosecuting witnesses and the compensation allowance paid for dearness of food grains.
16B. Law and Justice— Jails.	3	...	.....	3	Owing to the increase in the cost of dietary charges consequent on the high price of food grains and also to the payment of grain compensation allowance.
17. Police— Superintendence (3), Town Police (3), District Police (32) and Railway Police (2).	40	...	.....	40	Chiefly caused by the payment of grain compensation allowance and partly also by the formation of the Criminal Investigation Department and payment of arrears of rent.
18. Education— Direction (5) and Miscellaneous (8).	5	...	.....	5	The total excess was 13 which was caused by the appointment of Mr. Reddy as Assistant to the Inspector-General of Education, the deputation of teachers to attend the Industrial Exhibition at Mysore, and the additional apparatus, etc., purchased for the Central College. Of this excess 8 was however met by re-appropriation.
20. Medical— Hospitals and Dispensaries (14), Durbar Physician (12), Chemical Examiner and Bacteriologist (5), and Medical scholarships (1).	26	...	.....	26	Due chiefly to the payment of grain compensation allowance, the increased cost of dietary charges, the continuance of the services of the Special Medical Officer for a period longer than that provided for in the estimate and his trip to Japan with the Yuvaraj, the deputation of Dr. Srinivasa Rao to Europe and the appointment of another officer in his stead, and lastly the additional scholarships and purchase of books ordered for the Medical students. The total excess was 32, of which a part viz., 2, was met by re-appropriation and another 4 was ordered to be admitted.
24. Superannuation and Pension allowances.	14	...	.....	14	The estimate provision was inadequate. Hence this small excess.
25. Stationery and Printing— Printing and Gazette Office.	6	...	.....	4	Owing to the payment of grain compensation allowance (4) and the additional purchase of materials and type (2). Funds were found for the latter by re-appropriation.
26. Miscellaneous— Special and unforeseen charges (7), Basavangudi Extension (7).	14	...	.....	14	This excess was caused by the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Queen's Proclamation and the erroneous debit to this head of compensation for lands taken up, which will be adjusted in the current year's accounts.

Major and minor heads of account	Amount of excess expenditure	Already sanctioned		Amount of excess requiring sanction	Remarks in explanation of excess
		Amount	Government Order No. and date
28. Famine Relief—	61	...	.....	61	There was no separate provision in the estimate fo expenditure in connection with the distress and Government considered it desirable not to debit any portion of this expenditure to the Famine Reserve of 2,00. Hence the excess of 86 of which 25 was met by re-appropriation from the amount resigned by the Public Works Department.
30. State Railways— Revenue Account.	1	...	.....	1	A slight increase in the interest charges payable to the Railway Company.
32. Irrigation Minor works— Minor works.	16	15	Fl. 3185—G. F. 243-08-1. dated 19th January 09.	1	Increase due to additional stone and masonry works ordered to Minor tanks. An additional grant of 15 was already sanctioned and the excess now requiring sanction is only 1.

Amount under objection.

22. The total amount under objection at the end of October 1909 was 1,66. The following table gives the distribution of this total by districts :—

SECTION A.—PRINCIPAL HEADS OF REVENUE.

REVENUE.

Accounts 1907-08 Rs.	Budget 1908-09 Rs.	Revised 1908-09 Rs.	Accounts 1908-09 Rs.
1,81,17	1,73,37	1,63,65	1,63,51

24. The revenue in this section fell short of the estimate and of the actuals of the previous year by 9,86 and 17,66 respectively.

As compared with the estimate, the important decreases were under Land Revenue (10,84), Forest (2,12) and Assessed Taxes (74). The first and the last were due to the prevalence of distress, while the decrease in the Forest Revenue was chiefly the result of the unfavourable market for sandalwood.

Compared with the previous actuals, the bulk of the decrease was under Land Revenue and Forest.

I. Land Revenue.

Accounts 1907-08 Rs.	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09 Rs.	Revised 1908-09 Rs.	Accounts 1908-09 Rs.
94,88	Assessment on lands...	91,50	81,00	82,07
5,38	Quit-rent of minor Inam villages including Kayamgutta	5,10	4,90	4,45
3,50	Miscellaneous	3,37	3,05	2,57
4	Rent on toddy trees	3	5	7
1,03,80	Total ...	1,00,00	89,00	89,16

25. This Revenue was short of both the budget estimate and the actuals of the previous year. The falling off in the former case was (10,84) and in the latter 14,64.

Compared with the estimate the decrease was, as might be expected from the severe scarcity which prevailed in many parts of the State, mostly under Assessment on lands, and was the result of heavy remissions (4,50) and suspensions (5,71) sanctioned by Government. The realisations under Quit-rent on Minor Inams, etc., and also under Miscellaneous were worse by 65 and 80 respectively.

The decrease, as compared with the previous actuals, was due chiefly to the above cause and partly to the fact that the receipts of 1907-08 included the collection of a large portion of revenue suspended in previous years.

The total actuals agreed well with the Revised.

II. Forest.

Accounts 1907-08 Rs.	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09 Rs.	Revised 1908-09 Rs.	Accounts 1908-09 Rs.
17,89	Timber and other produce removed by Government agency	16,79	15,07	13,33
4,60	Do by consumers or purchasers...	3,19	3,86	4,40
1	Confiscated drift and waif wood ...	1	1	...
27	Miscellaneous	16	17	30
22,77	Total ...	20,15	19,11	18,03

26. The receipts under this head fell short of the estimate by 2,12. There was a large decrease under sandalwood, the sales during the year not being so good as in previous years. The average rate per ton secured for this wood at the sales was comparatively less and a portion of the quantity of wood marked for sale was on that account kept back. The result was that against the estimated revenue of 12,68 from sandalwood the actual realisation was only 9,25. This difference was, however, made good to some extent by the larger sale of timber consequent on the better transport facilities afforded to consumers and purchasers, and by the increase in the Miscellaneous revenue and that derived from the Minor Forest Produce. The figures clearly show that the grant of facilities to the cultivators, such as free grazing of cattle in State Forests during the period of scarcity, did not appreciably affect the Forest Revenue.

Compared with the accounts of the previous year, the actuals were less by 4,74 and were chiefly under Timber and other produce removed from the Forest by Government Agency, due to less realization from sandalwood for the reasons explained above.

III. Excise.

Accounts 1907-08 Rs.	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09 Rs.	Revised 1908-09 Rs.	Accounts 1908-09 Rs.
21,80	Arrack	20,90	22,03	21,95
18,85	Toddy	18,91	20,27	20,42
6	Beer	7	3	2
3	Akki Bhoja—License Fees	2	4	4
59	Ganja	53	68	68
41	Opium	34	45	42
6	Miscellaneous	6	9	10
3	Proportionate share of the cost of Central Distillery Establishment charges recovered from the Civil and Military Station ...	3	3	...
41,83	Total ...	40,86	43,62	43,63

27. This head showed a substantial increase over both the estimate and the previous actuals.

The improvement of 2,77 over the estimate was shared by all the minor heads except Beer, under which both the duty and the license fees realised much less. The Proportionate share of the cost of the Central Distillery charges payable by the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, for the year was not recovered during the year. The bulk of the increase was mostly under Arrack, Toddy and Ganja. Under Arrack there was an increase of 64 in the recovery on account of still-head duty and another of 34 under rent of farms. The license-fees on wholesale and retail vend of foreign liquors also showed some increase. Under Toddy the yield from Government Farms shop rental and tree tax was better by 84 and 32 respectively. No provision was made in the estimate for collection of arrears up to 30th June 1897 due on shops and vanams, but the actuals were 23. The duty on Ganja exceeded the budget anticipations by 17.

Compared with the previous accounts, the increase was chiefly under Toddy and Ganja. Here again the increase in the Toddy revenue was contributed both by shop rental and tree tax. The excess in the Ganja revenue was partly due to gain on sale but chiefly by the increase in the amount of the duty realised.

The fact that the increase in Excise revenue in 1908-09 over the amount of 1907-08 is due mainly to toddy revenue and not to any large extent to the revenue from Arracks or drugs, may be regarded as satisfactory.

IV. Assessed Taxes.

Accounts, 1907-08	...	...	3,17
Budget, 1908-09	...	...	3,18
Revised, 1908-09	...	...	2,00
Accounts, 1908-09	...	...	2,44

28. This revenue also suffered on account of the distress and the decrease was due to remissions made.

VI. Salt.

Accounts, 1907-08	...	...	10
Budget, 1908-09	...	...	10
Revised, 1908-09	...	...	6
Accounts, 1908-09	...	...	5

29. This is an insignificant head of revenue. From a study of the course taken by this revenue it is evident that in the near future the State will derive little or no revenue from this source. I would therefore remove it from the Principal Heads of Revenue and take it as a minor head under XIX. Miscellaneous.

VII. Stamps.

Accounts 1907-08	Minor Heads		Budget 1908-09	Revised 1908-09	Accounts 1908-09
Rs.			Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
3,20	Sale of general stamps ...	...	2,99	3,40	3,57
4,47	Sale of Court-fee Stamps ...	...	4,40	4,52	4,59
7	Sale of plain paper for Court purposes	...	7	8	8
12	Duty on impressing unstamped and insufficiently stamped documents	...	13	13	12
11	Fines and penalties ...	...	10	11	12
1	Miscellaneous	...	1	...	...
7,98	Total	...	7,70	8,24	8,48

30. The two main sources of this revenue are the general and the Court-fee Stamps. The increase over both the estimate and the previous actuals was chiefly in the sale of general stamps, which is probably connected with the distress which prevailed.

VIII. Registration.

Accounts, 1907-08	...	...	... 1,49
Budget, 1908-09	...	...	... 1,38
Revised, 1908-09	...	...	... 1,62
Accounts, 1908-09	...	...	... 1,72

31. There was an increase of 34 in the Fees levied in the Registry and Sub-Registry Offices and some improvement in the Miscellaneous revenue also, and the improvement is perhaps connected with the unfavourable character of the season.

31,30	33,65	33,15	32,69

32. The expenditure in this section was less than the estimate by 96, but exceeded the previous actuals by 1,39. The savings on the estimate was chiefly under Refunds and Land Revenue. In regard to the excess over the actuals of the previous year, while there was a saving of 21 under Refunds and Drawbacks, all the other heads showed excesses notably Land Revenue (43) and Forest (98). The causes of the above variations are explained under the heads concerned.

1. Refunds and Drawbacks.

Accounts 1907-08 Rs.	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09 Rs.	Revised 1908-09 Rs.	Accounts 1908-09 Rs.

22	Stamps	24	20	21
...	Other Refunds	1	1	1
2,10	Total ...	2,22	2,12	1,89

33. This is a varying head of expenditure and the actuals were short of the estimate by 33. Excise showed a large saving of 25.

2. Land Revenue.

Accounts 1907-08 Rs.	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09 Rs.	Revised 1908-09 Rs.	Accounts 1908-09 Rs.
58	Revenue Commissioner	60	60	62
7,59	Charges of District Administration ...	8,85	8,75	8,85
8,13	Remuneration to shanbhogs and patels ...	7,83	8,00	7,26
1,58	Revenue Survey and Settlement ...	1,69	1,58	1,58
5	Inam Department	5	5	5
10	District Survey Establishment ...	11	10	10
12	Assignments	15	12	12
18,15	Total ...	19,28	19,20	18,58

34. This expenditure fell short of the estimate by 70 but exceeded the previous actuals by 43. The large saving, compared with the estimate, was chiefly under Remuneration to shanbhogs and patels and Revenue Survey and Settlement. The former was due to the full amount of the potgi not having been paid during the year; and the latter to the lump sum grants made for establishment, boundary marks, the purchase and repair of furniture and dead stock and photozincographic work not having been fully utilized. Under Charges of District Administration, though the actuals equalled the estimate, there were large variations in the details. There was an increase of 9 in the charges of General establishments caused by the debit to this head of the cost of the Public Works establishment employed in the Revenue Department in connection with the distress, by the increase in the travelling allowance charges and by the grant of grain compensation allowance. There was also an increase of 6 in the cost of the Taluk establishment due to the payment of grain compensation allowance (26) which was however reduced by savings to the extent of 20 under establishment. These excesses were counterbalanced by the savings under Supplies and Services, by the grants for Revenue Process service charges and for Measuring Instruments for Taluks and Shekdars not having been utilised in full.

As compared with the actuals of the previous year, while there was a saving of 87 under Remuneration to shanbhogs and patels, there was an excess of 1,26 under Charges of District Administration. The former has already been explained. As regards the latter the large difference was due chiefly to the share of the Taluk Cutcherry establishment charges debitable to Law and Justice—Courts having been reduced from one half to one-fourth agreeably to Government Order No. Fl. 3203-4—G. F. 343-06, dated the 7th January 1908. The payment of grain compensation allowance during the year also contributed in part to the excess.

The actuals fell short of the Revised, as the non-payment of potgi to the extent of the arrears left could not be foreseen.

3. Forest.

Accounts 1907-08	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09	Revised 1908-09	Accounts 1908-09
Rs.		Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
3,72	Conservancy and Works	4,55	4,37	4,62
2,92	Establishment	3,06	2,96	3,00
6,64	Total ...	7,61	7,33	7,62

35. The expenditure under the head closely followed the estimate but exceeded the previous actuals by 98. Compared with the estimate there were variations in the details. There was a saving of 20 in the cost of the timber operations, but this was more than counterbalanced by increased expenditure on account of live and dead stock, communications and buildings and demarcation, such increase having been due chiefly to the purchase of a second traction engine, the additional outlay on buildings and on surveys, demarcation, planting and fire-protection measures and also to other sundry items of expenditure. This excess was almost met by the savings in establishment.

The excess over the previous actuals was largely contributed by the more extensive timber operations and the collection of sandalwood and the purchase of the engine mentioned above. The expenditure incurred on buildings and other works and on demarcation was also comparatively heavy.

The slight excess as compared with the Revised was due to the large expenditure incurred about the end of the year on demarcation, etc., which could not be foreseen.

4. Excise.

Accounts 1907-08	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09	Revised 1908-09	Accounts 1908-09
Rs.		Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
43	Salaries	44	46	46
1,58	Establishment	1,60	1,63	1,61
42	Allowances	44	46	46
77	Supplies and Services	75	67	80
10	Contingencies	13	9	7
3,30	Total ...	3,36	3,31	3,40

36. The expenditure under this head followed the estimate pretty closely but slightly exceeded the previous actuals.

Compared with the estimate there was a saving of 6 under Contingencies but this was more than counterbalanced by the excesses under the other minor heads, chiefly Supplies and Services, due to the payment of grain compensation allowance and to the increased cost of carrying liquor from Distillery to Bonded Depots. The loss by bung wastage of liquor allowed under contract was also slightly in excess of the estimate.

The small excess over the actuals of the previous year was chiefly caused by the absence of the permanent Excise Commissioner on leave and the appointment of another officer in his place and the grant of grain compensation allowance to the establishment.

The Revised would have been more accurate but for the large payment made about the close of the year for remuneration to contractors for carrying liquor, etc.

8. Stamps.

...	Discount on sale of plain paper for Court purposes	...	...	...
27	Total ...	33	35	36

37. The variations as compared with the estimate are small and call for no remarks. The excess over the previous actuals was chiefly under Stamp Manufactory, due to special purchase of paper for stamp and Court-fee purposes.

9. Registration.

74	District Charges	75	75	75

38. This expenditure was within the estimate but was slightly in excess of the previous actuals. The variations being small require no explanation.

SECTION AA.—MINING REVENUE.

Mining Royalty and Leases.

Accounts 1907-08	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09	Revised 1908-09	Accounts 1908-09

70	Rent on prospecting lands	6	33	31
...	Fines on assignments ...	...	...	...
15,83	Total ...	14,56	15,26	15,96

39. This is a fluctuating head of revenue, the receipts depending on the quantity of gold extracted. The revenue of the year exceeded the estimate by 1,40 and the previous accounts by 13. The improvement over the estimate was chiefly in the amount of the Royalty realised consequent on the increased production of gold and the recovery of a larger amount of arrears. The recovery on account of Rent on prospecting lands also exceeded the budget anticipations.

Compared with the previous actuals the fall under Rent on prospecting lands was more than made good by the increase in the Royalty receipts. The Revised under Royalty was apparently too cautious but caution is a necessity in dealing with such a fluctuating item beyond control.

40. The following is a comparative table of gold produced and the Royalty realised during the year under report and the previous year:—

	1907-08	1908-09	1908-09 more + or less —
Weight of bar gold produced in ozs.	534,011	538,867	+4,856
Certified value in £	2,047,725	2,068,456*	+20,731
Royalty in £	102,386	103,019	+633

Arrears remaining at the end of the year in £	21,791	21,674	—117

* Includes £ 8,080 worth of gold produced by the Mysore West and Mysore Wynaad Companies, on which no royalty was paid under the recent rules.

Section AA.—MINING REVENUE.

—3	Miscellaneous	10	— 6	— 6
14	Refunds	45	13	15
1,98	Total ...	2,51	1,99	1,99

41. This expenditure fell short of the estimate by 52 but was about the same as that in the previous year. The saving on the estimate was chiefly under Miscellaneous and Refunds. The loss by exchange was estimated at 10, but the exchange was favourable for converting sterling into Rupees and there was therefore not only no loss but a gain of 6. The provision made for the large refund to the Mysore West and the Mysore Wynaad Gold Mining Companies was not utilised as the claim for refund was settled after the close of the year.

Compared with the previous actuals the differences in details are small. The Revised was on the whole accurate.

42. The receipts in this section exceeded the estimate by 63 but fell short of the accounts for 1907-08 by 1,40.

X. Interest.

1,42	Interest on Loans	87	68	92
35	Interest on arrears of Revenue	26	24	23
1,77	Total ...	1,13	92	1,15

43. The total demand on account of Interest on Loans was about 2½ lakhs, but it was reduced by 1¾ lakhs, as not being likely to be recovered during the year. The actuals were however slightly better than the reduced demand and the improvement was chiefly in the realization of interest on loans to Agricultural Banks. The Interest on arrears of Revenue, chiefly Land Revenue, was, however, less than the estimate owing to remissions and suspensions.

There was, at the commencement of the year, outstanding a large amount of arrears of interest on loans, as is evident from the table of demand, collection and balance given below. The collection of the year was only about one-third of the total demand. Some action has no doubt been taken by Government towards its recovery, but it seems that more effective measures are required if the arrears are to be kept within reasonable limits.

Table showing the demand, collection and balance of interest on Loans.

Budget,	1908-09	3,91
Revised,	1908-09	4,42
Accounts,	1908-09	4,52

44. The actuals exceeded the estimate by 61 but were less than those of the previous year by 78. The increase over the estimate was mainly due to the additional investment in Government of India securities made after the budget estimate was framed and sanctioned.

As compared with the previous year, the less receipts were due to the fact that the previous year's figure included the interest on 50 lakhs of Government paper for the half-year ending 30th June 1907 which could not be recovered before the close of 1906-07.

Section B.—INTEREST.

Expenditure.

2,96	3,28	3,23	3,10

45. This expenditure fell short of the estimate by 18 but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 14. The reasons for these variations are explained under the heads which form this group.

11. Interest on Ordinary Debt.

Accounts 1907-08		Budget 1908-09	Revised 1908-09	Accounts 1908-09

65		85	80	69
62	Less Interest debitable to Cauvery Power Scheme	70	70	70
3	Total ...	15	10	—1

46. The actuals were less than the estimate by 16 and the previous year's actuals by 4. The estimate contained a small provision of 5 for the settlement of any claims which might arise in connection with the 5% Mysore Railway Loan of 1882; but no claim arose within the year and the grant made therefore lapsed. In regard to the 4% State Loan of 1906-07, the interest due on some of the Pro-notes was not claimed.

12. Interest on other Obligations.

Accounts 1907-08	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09	Revised 1908-09	Accounts 1908-09
Rs.		Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

47	Interest on Mysore State Life Insurance Fund	53	53	53
...	Refunds	...	...	23
2,81	Total ...	3,03	3,02	3,00

47. The total expenditure under this head closely followed the estimate but was in excess of the actuals of the previous year by 19.

Compared with the estimate the Interest on Savings Bank Deposits was less, while Refund showed an excess of 23 which was not anticipated. The interest due on the Savings Bank Deposits for the year has not yet been finally adjusted, and the refund in question was due to the adjustment of a wrong credit of 19 to interest on Loans to Agricultural Banks in the previous year and of 4 being the penal interest credited in accounts in connection with the loan granted to Musaheb Rama Rao but excused by Government.

48. The loss on investments consists chiefly of income tax paid on investments in securities. As the result of certain actions taken by Government during the year 1908-09, the bulk of such loss will be avoided in future.

4,40	3,92	4,04	3,89

50. These were less than the estimate and the actuals of the previous year by 3 and 51 respectively. Compared with the estimate all the Departments showed less except Education and Scientific and other Minor Departments, under which there was some increase.

XII A. Law and Justice—Courts of Law.

37	Fees, fines and forfeitures ...	46	36	36
1	Savings and refunds	1	1	1

44	Total ...	52	45	44

51. The actuals followed the estimates closely except under Fees, Fines and Forfeitures and Miscellaneous both of which are fluctuating and not capable of being accurately estimated. The expenditure was, however, the same as that of the previous year.

XII B. Law and Justice—Jails.

Accounts 1907-08 Rs.	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09 Rs.	Revised 1908-09 Rs.	Accounts 1908-09 Rs.

4	Cost of maintenance of Civil and Military Station prisoners ...	4	4	5
...	Savings and Refunds	...	...	...
2	Miscellaneous	...	...	...
25	Total ...	30	25	24

52. The receipts under Proceeds of Jail labour and manufacture and Proceeds from Jail garden were less than the estimate. The actuals under the other minor heads closely followed the estimate. The short receipt in the first two cases was due to a change made in the number of prisoners sent on out-door work and the reduction in the rate per prisoner charged and recovered; and to the discontinuance of the wrong practice of taking credit in Agricultural Department of the Jail for value of vegetables supplied to the prisoners n the Jail garden.

XIII. Police.

2	Savings and Refunds	2	1	1
...	Miscellaneous and other items ...	1	...	....
23	Total ...	25	20	15

53. The receipts under this head were less than both the estimate and the actuals of previous year by 10 and 8 respectively. The less receipt in the former case was shared all the minor heads, especially Seven-tenths share of Railway Police recovered from the mpanies and Contribution by Mining Companies for the Detective Police at Kolar Gold lds. These are in arrears and the matter is under correspondence. The same causes tributed to the reduction when compared with the previous actuals.

XIV. Education.

1	Savings, refunds and fines ...	1	1	1
1,35	Total ...	1,27	1,33	1,31

54. The receipts under this head showed an increase of 4 over the estimate but was s than the actuals of the previous year by the same amount.

The chief reason for the above small variations was that the fee-income, while it exceeded e estimate, fell short of the previous actuals.

XV. Medical.

...	Sale of vaccinated calves ...	1	...	...
...	Sanitary School	6	...	...
...	Plague Receipts	1	1	...
1,38	Total ...	97	1,00	92

55. These receipts fell short of the estimate by 5 and the accounts for 1907-08 by 46.

Compared with the estimate there was an excess of 4 in the recovery on account of the Cost of Maintenance of Civil and Military Station Lunatics and Lepers and another of 3 in the Miscellaneous receipts. Against these there was, however, decrease under Contributions from Municipal and District Fund on account of Local Fund Dispensaries (4), Sanitary School (6) and Plague and other receipts (2).

The large difference as compared with the accounts of the previous year was chiefly under Contributions from Municipal and District Funds on account of Local Fund Dispensaries due to the irregular adjustment of these contributions. Steps have been lately taken to regularise these adjustments as far as possible.

XVI. Scientific and other Minor Departments.

Accounts 1907-08 Rs.	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09 Rs.	Revised 1908-09 Rs.	Accounts 1908-09 Rs.

8	Miscellaneous	7	13	15
...	Receipts on account of public exhibition and fairs.	2	1	1
...	Deduct for rounding	2	...	...
75	Total ...	61	81	83

56. The receipts in this case exceeded both the estimate and actuals of the previous year. The excess in the former case was 22 and in the latter 8.

The improvement over the estimate was chiefly in the Geological Department and in Miscellaneous, due in the former case to the sale of some bars of gold by the Geological Secretary in Bangalore and in the latter case to larger receipts from Local Service and Pleaders' Examination fees. On the other hand the realisation from the sale of Amrut Mahal bulls was less.

Compared with the previous actuals the fees realised from Local Service and Pleaders' Examination were higher as already stated. The sale proceeds from Amrut Mahal bulls were, however, less by 18; but this was more than met by the sale of bar gold mentioned above.

Section D.—Salaries and Expenses of Civil Departments.

Expenditure.

	Accounts 1907-08 Rs.	Budget 1908-09 Rs.	Revised 1908-09 Rs.	Accounts 1908-09 Rs.

57. The total expenditure in this group showed a saving of 37 as compared with the estimate and of 1,87 as compared with the previous actuals.

The former was the result of a large number of variations. These are (1) the excesses of 10 under General Administration, of 19 under Law and Justice—Courts of Law and of 40 under Police; and (2) savings of 20 under Education, 8 under Muzrai, 30 under Medical and 9 under Scientific and other Minor Departments. These and the variations over the actuals of the previous year are explained in their proper places.

15. General Administration.

Accounts 1907-08 Rs.	Minor Heads	Budget 1908-09 Rs.	Revised 1908-09 Rs.	Accounts 1908-09 Rs.

1	Durbar presents	5	4	5
6,67	Total ...	6,70	6,58	6,80

58. This expenditure exceeded the estimate by 10 and also the previous actuals by 13.

Compared with the estimate there was a saving of 12 under Muzrai Secretariat owing to the abolition of the office of the Muzrai Secretary. But this saving was only nominal as a new office of the Muzrai Superintendent was created and the pay of this officer was debited to the head "19. Muzrai." The saving under this head was, however, more than counterbalanced by the increase of 11 under Staff and Household of His Highness the Maharaja due to the grant of leave to Mr. Maconochie, and the appointment of a new Private Secretary, the revision of the Private Secretary's Establishment, and the further excess of 18 under Government Houses, Stables, Parks and Gardens due principally to the adjustment during the year of cost of entertainment of Indian guests during the celebrations of the Dasara and Birthday of His Highness the Maharaja, of the previous year.

Compared with the previous actuals the only head that showed any savings was Tour charges; all the other minor heads showed increases particularly Comptroller's Office and Government Houses. The cause of the excess under Staff and Household of His Highness the Maharaja has already been explained; the excess under Civil Secretariats was owing to the increased cost of the General and Revenue Secretariat Establishment due to progressive salaries and under Comptroller's Office to the appointment of a Comptroller on higher pay. Increase in the cost of entertainment of guests, both Indian and European, and the Durbar presents made during the year also contributed to the excess.

The Revised did not foresee the large excess in the cost of entertainment of guests.

8,57	Total ...	7,65	7,87	7,84

59. The charges under this head closely followed the estimate except under Chief Court and Civil and Sessions Courts, in which there were excesses to the extent of 6 and 4 respectively, and these were due to the appointment of a fourth Puisne Judge as a temporary measure and to the promotion of the Sessions Judges to the higher grade and the absence of one of them on combined leave. There was also an excess of 8 in the Share of the Land Revenue charges debited to this head consequent on the increase in such charges.

Compared with the previous year, excepting for the large decrease of 97 in the share of Land Revenue Charges the cause of which was already explained under "2. Land Revenue," the aggregate expenditure was almost the same. There were, however, variations in the details, the more important of which are:—

(1) An excess of 12 under Chief Court,
(2) Do 5 under Civil and Sessions Courts,
(3) A saving of 8 under Munsiffs' Courts, and
(4) Another of 12 under Kolar Gold Mines Assistant Commissioner and First Class Magistrate.

The causes of the two former are the same as those given in the preceding paragraph; and the two latter were due to the transfer of the debit of the cost of the Munsiff and Magistrates' Courts from this head to "10. Charges against Mining Revenue."

The actuals almost exactly followed the Revised.

16B. Law and Justice—Jails.

14	Jail Manufactures	18	14	15
...	Refunds	...	...	...
1,23	Total ...	1,30	1,26	1,30

60. The actuals were the same as the estimate but exceeded the previous actuals by 7.

Compared with the estimate there was a slight excess under Jails due to the savings anticipated under establishments not having been realised, to the payment of grain compensation allowance and the increased cost of Dietary charges; but this excess was fully covered by the savings under Supplies and Services consequent on the less purchase of raw materials.

The excess over the accounts of the previous year was also under Jails and was caused by the increased cost of Dietary charges and the payment of grain compensation allowance.

61. This expenditure largely exceeded the estimate and the actuals of the previous year, the excess in the former case being 40 and in the latter 42. In both the cases it was chiefly under District Police due mainly to the payment of grain compensation allowance.

13,54	Total ...	10,21	9,87	10,01

62. This expenditure fell short of the estimate by 20 and of the actuals of the previous year by 351. The saving on the budget was distributed under all the minor heads except Direction, Grants-in-aid and Miscellaneous. The excess under Direction was caused by the appointment of an Assistant to the Inspector-General, for which there was no provision in the estimate. The other two excesses are only nominal as the lump sum provision made under Government Colleges and High Schools for meeting the cost of additional furniture and apparatus and under Government Taluk Schools for Boys and Girls for meeting the increase of pay sanctioned to primary school teachers, both Government and Village School Fund, appears as a charge under Grant-in-aid to Village School Fund and against the proper item under Miscellaneous. Of the savings, those under Government Colleges and High Schools (21) and under Government Schools, Special (5) were due chiefly to the lump sum grants, made for adapting the work of the Matriculation and Intermediate Classes to the New University Regulations and for extending the Kindergarten and Sloyd instruction, not having been utilised in full, and partly to the fact that the additional furniture and apparatus in connection with the adaptation of the Colleges and High Schools were debited in the accounts to the proper minor head, viz., Miscellaneous.

As compared with the previous actuals the important variations were as under:—

Savings under (a) University (4,50).
(b) Government Schools. special (17).
Excesses under (c) Direction (6).
(d) Government Taluk Schools for Boys and Girls (24).
(e) Book Department (5).
(f) Grants-in-aid (60).
(g) Scholarships (9) and
(h) Miscellaneous (5).

The savings in the case of (a) was due to the fact that in the previous year there was a special building grant of 5,00 sanctioned to the Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore, while in the year under report the grant paid to the Institute was only the annual grant of 50 for maintenance. The comparatively heavy initial cost required for starting the Kindergarten and Manual training in schools in the previous year was the cause of the saving under (b). Of the excesses, those under (c), (d), (f) and (h) have been explained in the preceding para, while those under (e) and (g) were due to the larger grants made during the year for the purchase of books and maps and for the increased scholarships sanctioned for studies in Government Schools, Special, and in Medical College.

63. There was a saving of 8 in this expenditure as compared with the estimate and an excess of 15 as compared with the previous actuals. Compared with the estimate, the actual expenditure under Ayurvedic College, Mysore, was only 1 against the lump sum provision of 17; on the other hand, no provision had been made for the salary of the Superintendent for the reason given under General Administration.

The excesses over the previous actuals were due to the above two causes as well as to the fact that there was a slight increase in the charge for endowments to Matts.

5,82	Total ...	7,46	6,82	7,07

64. The charges under this head fell short of the budget estimate by 39 but exceeded the previous actuals by 1,25.

The saving on the estimate was the result of a number of variations, the more important of which are noted below. Under Medical Establishments there was a saving of 14 chiefly in the pay of the Assistant Surgeons and Hospital Assistants. But there was a corresponding increase under Hospitals and Dispensaries due to increased cost of Electric Power, Diet of patients and Hospital necessaries of the Victoria Hospital; and to the payment of contribution to the Koppa Medical Fund and of grain compensation allowance to the Dispensary Establishments for which no provision had been made in the sanctioned estimate. It was also due in part to the saving in the Dispensary charges not having been realised as anticipated. The excesses of 12 and 5 under Durbar physician and Chemical Examiner and Bacteriologist were due to the deputations of Doctors Drake-Brockman and Srinivasa Rao, the former on special duty and the latter for duty in connection with the Health Laboratory to be opened in Bangalore. The large saving of 56 under Sanitation and Vaccination was due chiefly to the full establishment sanctioned for the new Health Department not having been entertained, to the grants for the Health Laboratory fittings and for scholarships for L. S. Sc. Degree not having been utilised in full, to the non-establishment of a Sanitary School as proposed and sanctioned, and to the actuals in connection with the plague preventive measures, for which a lump sum provision of 50 was made having been less than the estimate by 15.

Compared with the actuals of the previous year there were excesses under almost all the minor heads. The absence on leave and on deputation of Col. Smyth and the acting arrangements made in consequence were the chief causes of the excess of 11 under Medical Establishments. The increase of 13 in the charges for Hospitals and Dispensaries was due partly to the increased cost of the Victoria Hospital. This increased cost was consequent on the pay of the specialist charged during the year being for one full year against only a few months in the previous year, and on the increased charges for diet of patients, oil gas, and electric power already mentioned. The increase under Hospital and Dispensaries was due partly also to increase in the Local Fund Dispensary charges consequent on the increased contingent grants allowed and the payment of grain compensation allowance. In regard to the excesses under Durbar Physician (25) and Chemical Examiner and Bacteriologist (5) the explanations furnished in the preceding paragraph apply also to these. The larger grants sanctioned for the year for the purchase of Europe Medicines and for the gradual bringing up of the Sanitary Establishment towards the full scale and the transfer of the plague charges to this head from "26. Miscellaneous" account for the increased expenditure under Medical Stores and Sanitation and Vaccination.

The increase of 25 in the actuals over the revised was chiefly in the items of Supplies and Services of the Victoria Hospital and Local Fund Dispensaries, the pay and allowances of the Durbar Physician and in the Sanitary Department Charges about which no accurate information was available in this office.

65. The total expenditure under this head showed a saving as compared with the estimate but exceeded the actuals of the previous year.

The saving in the first case was 39 and was chiefly in the cost of the Experimental Cultivation due to the lump sum and other grants sanctioned for the Laboratory fittings of the Entomologist and Mycologist and for experiments in fruit culture not having been utilised to any large extent.

The excess over the previous actuals was owing to the increased outlay sanctioned during the year for (1) Experimental Cultivation, (2) the Civil Veterinary Department, and (3) the Improvement of the Botanical Gardens in Bangalore. It was also due to some extent to the of payment grain compensation allowances to the establishment of the Amrut Mahal Department.

69. This is a very uncertain head and the receipts under it exceeded the estimate by 9 but fell short of the previous actuals by 12.

Compared with the estimate the improvement was chiefly in the amounts of the Unclaimed Deposits credited to Government, of the Tolls on roads recovered, and of the Miscellaneous sale proceeds chiefly of sites in the Malleswaram Extension of the Bangalore City. The difference between the previous and the current actuals was chiefly in the "Other Items" under the minor head Miscellaneous.

70. These charges were less than the estimate by 94 and than the previous actuals by 1,19. The improvement was mostly under the head Miscellaneous and partly also under Stationery and Printing. The transfer of the plague charges during the year from this head to Medical also accounts for the large saving when compared with the previous actuals.

72. These charges have exceeded the estimate and the previous actuals by 11 and 45 respectively. The increase in both the cases was, as might be expected, under Superannuation and Retired Allowances. The cause of the increase in the annual charges on account of pension has been dealt with in detail in paragraph 68 of the previous year's report, to which attention is invited.

The following table shows the growth of the pension charges during the last nine years.

2,27	Total ...	1,88	1,93	1,91

73. The actuals in this case slightly exceeded the estimate but were less than the previous actuals by 36. The small excess in the former case was on account of the grant of grain compensation allowance to the establishment and to the purchase of a larger quantity of material and type. In the previous year there was a specially large purchase of material and type to meet the growing requirements of the Press and this was the cause of the comparatively larger outlay in that year.

The Revised has been fairly accurate.

4,59	Total ...	4,38	3,68	3,32

74. The expenditure under this head showed a large saving both on the estimate and the actuals of the previous year.

As compared with the estimate there were the following important savings and excesses :—

(1)	Miscellaneous (General) ...	...	— 9
(2)	Reception of important personages ...	...	—10
(3)	Contributions ...	...	—37
(4)	Charities and donations ...	...	—60
(5)	Special and unforeseen charges ...	...	+ 7
(6)	Bangalore City and Extensions ...	...	+ 7

The net result was a saving of 1,06. Of the savings (1) was solely in the purchase and repair of tents. Under (2) it is probable that a portion of the expenditure was debited to General Administration; under (3) the saving was due to the fact that the contribution payable to the Mysore City Improvement Trust Fund was restricted to 3,00 minus the actual opening balance and the receipts of the year to the credit of the Trust Fund; and under (4) to the amount provided for the Bust and additional Statue of His Highness the late Maharaja Chamarajendra Wadayar Bahadur not having been paid during the year. These savings were to some extent reduced by the special charges incurred (No. 5) in connection with the celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Queen's Proclamation, and by the amount paid for compensation for lands taken up for the Basavangudi Extension No. (6) which ought to have been debited to advances pending receipt of vouchers but which was wrongly debited to this head. This mistake will be adjusted in the accounts of the current year.

Compared with the previous year's charges the large saving of 1,24 was due chiefly to the lapse of the grant for the Bust and additional Statue mentioned above and the transfer of the plague charges to Medical. There were other differences also, but these were more or less due to the varying nature of the expenditure under the head.

The Revised did not anticipate the large increase in the receipts of the year in favour of the Mysore City Improvement Trust Fund which went to reduce the amount of the contribution payable to the Fund.

75. The receipts in this section were a little less than the budget but exceeded the previous actuals by 35. The decrease in the former case was in the Kunigal Farm receipts due to the sale proceeds from the Farm produce, the foals and the unserviceable animals having fallen short of the estimate by 14. This was to some extent counterbalanced by the increase of 7 in the receipts from the Hessarghatta and Nadamavinapura Farms.

The excess over the previous actuals was on account of the abolition of the separate fund which had been previously formed for the Hessargatta and Nadamavinapura Farms and the credit of the receipts from these farms to this head.

76. The actuals of the year showed a saving of 47 on the estimate but exceeded the previous actuals by 1,25.

Compared with the estimate there were savings under Head quarters (8), under Imperial Service Transport Corps (56) and under Superannuation and Retired allowances (10); on the other hand, there was excess under Imperial Service Regiment (22), Local Service Regiment (6), and Government Stud Farm, Kunigal (5). Of the decreases, the first was due to the abolition of the appointment of the Military Assistant and the second was due partly to savings under Salaries and Establishment and partly to the grants for ordinary Supplies and Services and for the special charges in connection with the extra carts and components and the mobilisation equipment not having been utilised to the full extent. The increases were mostly under Supplies and Services and were caused by the dearness of gram, etc., and the payment of a large amount of compensation to the contractor for loss sustained by him in 1907 in supplying chenna rations to the Imperial Service Regiment.

As compared with the previous actuals there was a very large increase and, excepting Head-quarters in which there was a saving of 13, all the other minor heads contributed to the increase as the following will show:—

(1) Imperial Service Regiment—	66	...	Due mainly to the increased grant sanctioned for Supplies and Services-both ordinary and special-and to the payment of compensation to contractor.
(2) Local Service Regiment—	10	...	Due to increased charges under compensation for dearness of gram and ragi.
(3) Government Stud Farm, Kunigal—	16	...	Due to the comparatively heavier cost of food and keep of stallions, foals, etc., and also of the farm cattle.
(4) Hessarghatta and Nadamavinapura Farms.	24	...	A new item brought on the estimate for the first time during the year under report for the reason explained on the receipt side.
(5) Imperial Service Transport Corps	12	...	To revision of establishment and extra carts and components and mobilisation equipment sanctioned during the year. These amounted to 45, but the comparatively less expenditure under supplies and services reduced the excess to 12.
(6) Superannuation and Retired allowances	8	...	To the growth of pension charges.

The actuals exceeded the Revised by 27 and the excess was chiefly under Imperial Service Regiment and Government Stud Farm, Kunigal, and in the expenditure for Supplies and Services.

80. The net revenue from the Railways was better than the estimate by 87 and the actuals of the previous year by 32. The improvement in both the cases was due partly to increased traffic on the lines, specially on the metre gauge lines, and partly to the reduction in the share of the surplus profit paid to the Madras and Southern Mahratta Company in terms of the revised contract with the Company. Such share paid in previous year was one-fourth of the net profit on the Mysore—Harihar line, but commencing with the year under is one-twentieth of such profits on all the lines.

82. The improvement over the estimate and the actuals of the previous year was due mainly to the credit of the amount of contribution (30) by the Bangalore City Municipality for the maintenance of the Chamarajendra Water Works, and to the taxes levied on steam tramway trucks used for the conveyance of manganese ore in the Shimoga District, both of which were not anticipated at the time the budget estimate was prepared. The realisation from the sale of water to the Kolar Gold Fields Mines was also better.

83. There was on the whole a saving of 77 in this expenditure as compared with the estimate and of 2,10 as compared with the previous actuals. The variations in the details are explained under each of the major heads concerned.

Irrigation Major.—

The excess over the estimate under this head was 51 and the saving on the actuals of the previous year was 1,44. The former was chiefly in connection with the Marikanave Tank, the channels under which were brought to nearer completion. Some of the other tank works were also pushed on with a view either to conserve labour in the parts affected by the distress or to complete the few remaining items of works. The latter saving was caused by comparatively less expenditure incurred on the Chandanur and Ramasagara Tanks, the new Sowlanga Tank, and the improvements to the Devaraj and Sriramadevar Dam North Channels, which were either far advanced or approached completion.

Irrigation Minor.—

In this case there were excesses over both the estimate and the actuals of the previous year. These were due mainly to stone and masonry works to tanks having been carried out on a large scale to give employment to as many men as possible during the period of distress and also with the view of not allowing the earthwork carried out as relief work to become useless for want of the stone and masonry work necessary for preservation.

Other Public Works—Civil Works.—

The actuals of the year fell short of the budget estimate by 1,20 but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 38.

The short expenditure in the first case was caused by (1) the non-payment during the year of the price of the Glentilt Bungalow on the Nandi Hills and of the land compensation in connection with the Bangalore City Drainage Works; (2) the late adjustment of the cost of the electric fittings for the Mysore Palace; and (3) the surrender of grant of 71 for meeting the expenditure on relief measures. The excess in the second case was due to the comparatively shorter outlay during the year on Irrigation Major Works and the consequently less debit to that head on account of proportionate cost of establishment and tools and plant.

Military.—

The greater portion of the grant under this head was surrendered to provide funds for expenditure in connection with the distress. Hence the large decrease when compared with the estimate and the previous actuals.

Railway Construction.—

While this expenditure slighly exceeded the budget estimate, it fell short of the actuals of the previous year by 1,39. The comparatively smaller number of works undertaken during the year and the decrease in the proportionate share of the General Store balance contributed to the above large decrease.

84. The revenue from this source exceeded the budget by 96 but was about the same as that of the previous year. The excess over the estimate was due to the increased revenue derived from the Bangalore Lighting and Power Section consequent on the additional lighting and power installations put up, to the remissions estimated for the mines having proved somewhat high, and to the recovery of a larger amount of arrears.

85. The actuals on the whole exceeded both the estimate and the previous actuals. The excess in the first case was 8,38 and in the second 9,29.

Compared with the estimate there was a large decrease (72) in the working charges, due to savings under Establishment, Distribution and Management and also to the transfer of materials from works to the suspense account. The capital outlay also showed a saving of 97, of which 46 was the grant for the older installations which was subsequently transferred to the 3rd or new installation and 51 was on account of the write-back of the value of the materials to the 3rd installation, the cost of which was, under the then arrangement, met from the loan raised for the purpose. These savings were more than counterbalanced by the large excess of 10,06 due to the formation of the Depreciation Fund ordered in Government Order No. D. P. W. 118-22-819-23, dated 1st February 1909.

As compared with the previous year's figures, the excess was caused solely by the newly formed Depreciation Fund mentioned above. The Working expenses were somewhat larger but the excess on this account was more than met by the saving in the Capital Outlay.

The SECRETARY reported to the Council that the Mysore Police Bill and the Bill to amend the Mysore Registration Regulation, I of 1903, received the assent of His Highness the Maharaja on the the 23rd and 26th day of December 1908, respectively.

Bill further to amend the Mysore Chief Court Regulation, 1884.

MR. T. ANANDA RAO moved for leave to introduce the Bill, and in doing so, said:—Sir, I beg leave of the Council to introduce a Bill for a small amendment in the Mysore Chief Court Regulation. In section 4 of the Regulation, as it now stands, it is declared that the Chief Court of Mysore shall consist of three or more Judges. In section 3, a "Full Bench" is defined as meaning a Bench consisting of all the Judges. In section 15, clause (3), it is stated that the decision of a majority comprising the full Bench shall be the decision of the Chief Court. These provisions work well enough when the Chief Court consists of an odd number of Judges. But a difficulty arises when, as now, it may consist of an even number of Judges—at present the number is four. If, in this circumstance, the Judges of a full Bench are equally divided in opinion in any case before them, there is nothing in the Regulation to show which opinion the decision shall follow. It is proposed to meet this difficulty by enacting that a full Bench shall consist, not necessarily of all the Judges of the Chief Court, but of not less than three of them. I move that leave be granted to me to introduce a Bill to this effect.

MR. M. C. RANGIENGAR seconded the motion. The motion was put to the Council and carried.

Bill further to amend the Mysore Land Revenue Code, Regulation IV of 1888.

MR. K. S. CHANDRASEKHARA AIYAR, moved for leave to introduce the Bill and in doing so, said :—Sir, I beg leave to introduce a Bill for further amending the Mysore Land Revenue Code, 1888.

The Bill is a short one. It consists of a single clause which directs the insertion in the Code of a new section 210 A, which empowers Government to withdraw any appeal or class of appeals from the file of the Revenue Commissioner and dispose of the same itself or retransfer any such appeal when necessary to the Revenue Commissioner.

It will be remembered that when the Land Revenue Code was amended in 1906, the Deputy Commissioners of Districts were declared to be subordinate to Revenue Commissioner, who was therefore under section 210, the authority to whom all appeals from their orders would lie. The appellate orders of the Revenue Commissioner were at the same time declared to be final except when a question of law or usage having the force of law was involved.

Provision was not however made at the time for withdrawing any appeal from the file of the Revenue Commissioner, should Government see occasion to do so. Such a power to withdraw cases from the files of subordinate courts is one that the supreme Courts both in British India and Mysore and even all District Courts, possess under the new Code of Civil Procedure. A similar power on the part of Government in regard to Revenue appeals is obviously a desirable addition to the ordinary revenue procedure. It is also very urgently required just now in order that the Revenue Commissioner, whose revenue work is heavy, may have sufficient relief from his ordinary duties to be able to devote adequate time and attention to his famine work, which is on the increase.

Appeals withdrawn under the new section will of course be heard and disposed of by a Committee of Council, and the slight amendment of the Council Rules necessitated will be separately notified in due course.

I now ask that leave to introduce the Bill may be given.

MR. SYED AMIR HASSAN seconded the above motion. The motion was put to the Council and carried.

THE PRESIDENT.—The next item on the agenda is a motion by MR. K. S. CHANDRASEKHARA AIYAR, that the rules of business of the Council be suspended so as to permit of the above Bill being read and taken into consideration immediately and passed by the Council.

MR. K. S. CHANDRASEKHARA AIYAR.—Sir, I have already explained the urgency of the measure, and in the circumstances, I beg to move that the rules of business of the Legislative Council may be suspended so as to permit of the Bill being read and taken into consideration immediately, and passed by the Council.

MR. T. ANANDA RAO seconded the motion. The motion was put to the Council and carried unanimously.

The Bill was then read by the mover, at the close of which MR. M. C. RANGIENGAR enquired if, in cases withdrawn by Government from the file of the Revenue Commissioner, the Government would go into questions of fact, as would be done by the Revenue Commissioner, if those cases were tried by him. He added that, as under Section 210 of the Land Revenue Code, as amended by Regulation, VI of 1906, appeals lay to Government only on points of law or usage having the force of law, the point might be made clear before the Bill was taken into consideration by the Council.

In reply, MR. CHANDRASEKHARA AIYAR observed that the Government was prevented from going into questions of fact only in appeals against the decisions of the Revenue Commissioner, but that in cases withdrawn from his file, the Government had the same powers which the Revenue Commissioner would have had if he had to dispose of them.

MR. K. S. CHANDRASEKHARA AIYAR then moved that the Bill be taken into consideration and passed by the Council.

MR. K. P. PUTTANNA CHETTY seconded the motion.

The motion was put to the Council and carried.

The Bill was then finally considered by the Council and passed.

The Council then adjourned.

V. P. MADHAVA RAO,
President.

Letters Nos. 2054, 2055 and 2056, dated the 13th October 1908, from the Secretary, Indian Railway Conference Association.

RESOLUTION.—The occurrence of an accident brought to notice an apparent inconsistency between rule 44, sub-rule (c), Chapter II, and rules 110 and 111, sub-rule (a), Chapter V, of Part I of the General Rules for working open lines of railway promulgated with Railway Board's Circular No. R. T. 89-A—5., dated the 8th September 1906, and a revision of rules 110 and 111, sub-rule (a), was, therefore, considered necessary.

2. Rule 12, sub-rule (4) of the General rules makes it incumbent on a Railway Administration to fix a starting signal, where no advanced starting signal is provided, outside all connections on the line to which it refers. It was represented that under certain circumstances it was desirable to permit of the starter, where no advanced starter was provided, being fixed inside connections, and an alteration of the rule was accordingly suggested.

3. It was further represented that the amplification of rule 22 of the General Rules was necessary with a view to distinguishing semaphore signals temporarily out of use, from newly erected semaphore signals intended to be brought into use later.

4. The suggested amendments of the General Rules mentioned were accordingly referred to the India Railway Conferrence Association for consideration. The recommendations of the Association have now been received and considered by the Railway Board and have been approved by them.

5. In exercise, therefore, of the powers conferred by the notification of the Government of India in the Department of Commerce and Industry, No. 801, dated the 24th March 1905 read in the preamble above, the Railway Board sanction, under Section 47, Sub-sections (1) and (4) of the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890), as in force in British India or as locally applied, the adoption, by the administrations of all lines of railway administered by the Government, of the amendments specified in the annexure hereto in the General Rules for working open lines of railway, which were promulgated with Railway Board's Circular No. R. T. 89-A—5, dated the 8th September 1906.

6. The Railway Board also desire that the said amendments may be brought to the notice of the administrations of the several railways not administered by the Government and which are under the control of the local Government—your control, and that the Agents and Managers of those railways may be invited to submit formal applications for the adoption of the said amendments. They also desire that the Agents and Managers of other lines will submit similar applications.

ORDER.—Ordered that this circular, with the accompanying amendments, be published under a notification in Part I of the Gazette of India, as required by Section 47, sub-section (3), of the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890), and that a copy thereof be kept open for inspection at railway stations as directed by sub-section (6) of the same section, also that a copy of this circular and of its enclosure be communicated to the Local Governments, Administrations and the Officers noted on the margin, for information.

Rule 12, sub-rule (4), Chapter II :—

After the words to which it refers in the last line of the sub-rule, substitute a comma for the full stop, and add the following words :—

in all cases in which exceptions are not allowed by approved special instructions.

Rule 22, Chapter II.—After the words bars on them in the last line of the rule, add the following words :—

Notifications by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

GENERAL AND REVENUE.

Circular Order No. Fl. 7215-55—S. & A. 484-08-1, dated 7th May 1909.

To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts and other Heads of Departments and Heads of Offices.

From the list of pending pension cases for several quarters past, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja observe that the various Government orders* pointing out the necessity of early disposal of pension cases by officers through whom such cases have to pass, have not produced the desired effect. The number of petitions received in the Comptroller's office from retired officials complaining of the long delay in the settlement of their pension claims, points to the same conclusion.

*Progs. No. 1391-70—P. & A. 1216, dated the 18th March 1903.
" " P. & A. 196-235, dated the 11th August 1903.
" " Fl. 7904-8003—S. & A. 662-04-6, dated the 22nd May 1905.
" " Fl. 4084-726—S. & A. 278-06-1, dated the 20th December 1906.
" " Fl. 2154-91, dated the 21st November 1908.
" " Fl. 6548-88, dated the 10th April 1909.

2. The Government of His Highness the Maharaja consider this state of affairs to be exceedingly unsatisfactory and they desire to state that in future the Heads of Offices and the Heads of Departments will be held personally responsible for avoidable delays in this connection. With a view to the speedy disposal of pension applications, the following instructions are now repeated :—

(1) The chief cause for the delay in the settlement of a pension claim is that due to the time taken in the verification of the services of non-gazetted officers. Special attention should, therefore, be given to the instructions contained in many of the orders referred to in para 1 regarding the correct posting of service registers and keeping them up to date. With the service registers properly maintained, delay may be entirely obviated in most cases by adopting the procedure of preliminary verification provided in Article 489 of the Mysore Service Regulations. It is requested that Heads of Offices will adopt this procedure in future in all cases in which it is possible to do so.

(2) Another cause for delay is that pension cases are not, in most cases, sent with complete details to the Comptroller's office and that they have to be returned once or more for additional information or corrections, etc. Before despatching an application for pension or gratuity to the Comptroller's office, the Head of an office should invariably satisfy himself that the application has been prepared in conformity with the instructions laid down in the Mysore Service Regulations. If this is done, much of the delay that is at present complained of will be avoided.

(3) Pension applications should not be dealt with as papers in the ordinary course, but their disposal as well as subsequent references from the Comptroller's office should be regarded as urgent.

3. If Heads of Offices and controlling officers pay proper attention to the subject, much of the delay and hardship complained of will disappear. But as it is desirable absolutely to put an end to the present intolerable state of things under which retired officials do not get their pensions for months together and in some cases even for years after their retirement, the Government of His Highness are pleased to direct that the Head of every office shall furnish the Comptroller within fifteen days from the date of retirement of any person employed in that office with—

(1) an advance copy of the first and second pages of the pension application prepared with the fullest information that can be obtained regarding service, without delay,

(2) a duplicate last-pay certificate, and

(3) an explanatory memo of doubtful points in connection with the service.

In the case of Heads of Offices subordinate to a departmental controlling officer, the above papers should pass through the Head of the Department, who should pass them on to the Comptroller within one week of their receipt in every case with his remarks, if he has any to offer.

4. The Comptroller will thus have sufficient materials for the grant of an anticipatory pension in every case within one month of the officer's retirement and such pensions should be freely granted. The applicant should also be distinctly told at the time of retirement by the Head of his office that he should apply to the Comptroller for an anticipatory pension if he wants payment of pension at once. The Comptroller cannot at present freely exercise his powers of granting anticipatory pensions though some retired officials apply for it, as the necessary information is not available without reference to the Head of the Office and without considerable delay in many cases.

5. The fact of the grant of an anticipatory pension should in no way delay the submission of the formal application which should be done under standing orders within three months at the most of an officer's retirement.

By Order,
J. S. CHAKRAVARTI,
Financial Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY.

RAILWAYS.

RESOLUTION.

Dated Calcutta, the 27th February 1907.

In the Circular issued by the Public Works Department No. 1-Railway, dated the 9th March 1898, sanction was accorded to the adoption by Railway Administrations, among other risk note forms, of Form B, intended for articles despatched at a "special reduced" or "owner's risk" rate, and of Form H, used as an alternative to Form B, when a sender desired to enter into a general agreement, in place of executing a separate risk note for each consignment.

2. It has from time to time been represented that Railway Administrations should undertake a greater measure of responsibility in the case of consignments carried by them at the "special reduced" or "owner's risk" rates than is entailed by the existing risk note forms; and, as the Government of India agreed with this contention, the question of the revision of the forms was referred to the Indian Railway Conference Association for consideration. The Association, at their meeting in October 1904, revised the form of Risk Notes B and H; and these amended forms, after further revision by the Government of India, have now been finally accepted by all the railways represented by the Association.

3. The Governor-General in Council is pleased to approve, under section 72, sub-section (2), clause (b) of the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890), the use of the Forms B and H appended to this Resolution by Railway Administrations working railways to which the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890), applies, with effect from the 1st April 1907.

4. In the case of railways in Native States to which the provisions of the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890), have been, or may in future be, applied, the Governor-General in Council is also pleased to approve the use of these forms from the 1st April 1907, or from any later date on which the Indian Railways Act may be applied.

ORDERED, that a copy of this Resolution, and of its enclosures be communicated to the Local Governments and Administrations noted in the margin, for information and guidance, to the Government of the Punjab, the Chief Commissioner, Central Provinces, the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan, the Accountant General, Public Works Department, and to the Foreign Department, for information; and to the Secretary to the Railway Board, for further necessary action.

Ordered, also, that the Resolution, and the accompanying forms, be published under a Notification in Part I of the Gazette of India, and that they be reproduced in the Local Government Gazettes.

Notifications by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

GENERAL AND REVENUE.

Circular Order No. Fl. 7215-55—S. & A. 484-08-1, dated 7th May 1909.

To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts and other Heads of Departments and Heads of Offices.

From the list of pending pension cases for several quarters past, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja observe that the various Government orders* pointing out the necessity of early disposal of pension cases by officers through whom such cases have to pass, have not produced the desired effect. The number of petitions received in the Comptroller's office from retired officials complaining of the long delay in the settlement of their pension claims, points to the same conclusion.

" " Fl. 2354-94, dated the 21st November 1908.
" " Fl. 6548-88, dated the 10th April 1909.

2. The Government of His Highness the Maharaja consider this state of affairs to be exceedingly unsatisfactory and they desire to state that in future the Heads of Offices and the Heads of Departments will be held personally responsible for avoidable delays in this connection. With a view to the speedy disposal of pension applications, the following instructions are now repeated :—

(1) The chief cause for the delay in the settlement of a pension claim is that due to the time taken in the verification of the services of non-gazetted officers. Special attention should, therefore, be given to the instructions contained in many of the orders referred to in para 1 regarding the correct posting of service registers and keeping them up to date. With the service registers properly maintained, delay may be entirely obviated in most cases by adopting the procedure of preliminary verification provided in Article 489 of the Mysore Service Regulations. It is requested that Heads of Offices will adopt this procedure in future in all cases in which it is possible to do so.

(2) Another cause for delay is that pension cases are not, in most cases, sent with complete details to the Comptroller's office and that they have to be returned once or more for additional information or corrections, etc. Before despatching an application for pension or gratuity to the Comptroller's office, the Head of an office should invariably satisfy himself that the application has been prepared in conformity with the instructions laid down in the Mysore Service Regulations. If this is done, much of the delay that is at present complained of will be avoided.

(3) Pension applications should not be dealt with as papers in the ordinary course, but their disposal as well as subsequent references from the Comptroller's office should be regarded as urgent.

3. If Heads of Offices and controlling officers pay proper attention to the subject, much of the delay and hardship complained of will disappear. But as it is desirable absolutely to put an end to the present intolerable state of things under which retired officials do not get their pensions for months together and in some cases even for years after their retirement, the Government of His Highness are pleased to direct that the Head of every office shall furnish the Comptroller within fifteen days from the date of retirement of any person employed in that office with—

(1) an advance copy of the first and second pages of the pension application prepared with the fullest information that can be obtained regarding service, without delay,

(2) a duplicate last-pay certificate, and

(3) an explanatory memo of doubtful points in connection with the service.

In the case of Heads of Offices subordinate to a departmental controlling officer, the above papers should pass through the Head of the Department, who should pass them on to the Comptroller within one week of their receipt in every case with his remarks, if he has any to offer.

4. The Comptroller will thus have sufficient materials for the grant of an anticipatory pension in every case within one month of the officer's retirement and such pensions should be freely granted. The applicant should also be distinctly told at the time of retirement by the Head of his office that he should apply to the Comptroller for an anticipatory pension if he wants payment of pension at once. The Comptroller cannot at present freely exercise his powers of granting anticipatory pensions though some retired officials apply for it, as the necessary information is not available without reference to the Head of the Office and without considerable delay in many cases.

5. The fact of the grant of an anticipatory pension should in no way delay the submission of the formal application which should be done under standing orders within three months at the most of an officer's retirement.

By Order,
J. S. CHAKRAVARTI,
Financial Secretary.

The Government of His Highness the Maharaja consider this state of affairs to be exceedingly unsatisfactory and they desire to state that in future the Heads of Offices and the Heads of Departments will be held personally responsible for avoidable delays in this connection. With a view to the speedy disposal of pension applications, the following instructions are now repeated :—

(1) The chief cause for the delay in the settlement of a pension claim is that due to the time taken in the verification of the services of non-gazetted officers. Special attention should, therefore, be given to the instructions contained in many of the orders referred to in para 1 regarding the correct posting of service registers and keeping them up to date. With the service registers properly maintained, delay may be entirely obviated in most cases by adopting the procedure of preliminary verification provided in Article 489 of the Mysore Service Regulations. It is requested that Heads of Offices will adopt this procedure in future in all cases in which it is possible to do so.

(2) Another cause for delay is that pension cases are not, in most cases, sent with complete details to the Comptroller's office and that they have to be returned once or more for additional information or corrections, etc. Before despatching an application for pension or gratuity to the Comptroller's office, the Head of an office should invariably satisfy himself that the application has been prepared in conformity with the instructions laid down in the Mysore Service Regulations. If this is done, much of the delay that is at present complained of will be avoided.

(3) Pension applications should not be dealt with as papers in the ordinary course, but their disposal as well as subsequent references from the Comptroller's office should be regarded as urgent.

But as it is desirable absolutely to put an end to the present intolerable state of things, under which retired officials do not get their pensions for months together, and in some cases even for years after their retirement, the Government of His Highness are pleased to direct that the Head of every office shall furnish the Comptroller within fifteen days from the date of retirement of any person employed in that office with—

(1) an advance copy of the first and second pages of the pension application prepared with the fullest information that can be obtained regarding service, without delay,

(2) a duplicate last-pay certificate, and

(3) an explanatory memo of doubtful points in connection with the service.

In the case of Heads of Offices subordinate to a departmental controlling officer, the above papers should pass through the Head of the Department, who should pass them on to the Comptroller within one week of their receipt in every case with his remarks, if he has any to offer.

4. The Comptroller will thus have sufficient materials for the grant of an anticipatory pension in every case within one month of the officer's retirement and such pensions should be freely granted. The applicant should also be distinctly told at the time of retirement by the Head of his office that he should apply to the Comptroller for an anticipatory pension if he wants payment of pension at once. The Comptroller cannot at present freely exercise his powers of granting anticipatory pensions though some retired officials apply for it, as the necessary information is not available without reference to the Head of the Office and without considerable delay in many cases.

5. The fact of the grant of an anticipatory pension should in no way delay the submission of the formal application which should be done under standing orders within three months at the most of an officer's retirement.

Ship-masters must present to the registration authorities of the port of entry a list of the non-indigenous natives to be landed there.

SECTION 2.

Every non-indigenous native immigrating into the Protectorate must within three days after landing report himself to the authorities of the port and make a statement for purposes of identification. Thereupon a certificate will be given to him.

The authorities may order a medical inspection.

If a person who is under the obligation to report himself leaves the Protectorate or changes his domicile within the Protectorate from one district to another, he must announce his arrival and departure in the same manner.

SECTION 3.

Whoever in the Protectorate introduces non-indigenous natives under a definite labour contract is bound to deliver to the authorities within three days from the landing a copy of the contract and a list of names in duplicate. If there is no labour contract, one must be drawn up before the authorities of the port of landing.

The obligation of making an announcement to the authorities of the place where the work is carried out takes effect in the same manner on the renewal or prolongation of an existing arrangement or contract for working. The authorities may order the native to appear personally and be medically examined.

The costs of the examination and reception of needy or sick persons into an institution are borne by the employer and not by the official authorities.

The workmen introduced may only be employed after the facts of their having reported themselves and being fit to work have been certified on the second copy of the list of names.

SECTION 4.

The authorities must supervise the arrangements for working and must especially examine the lodging, provisioning, medical attendance and wages of the workmen. The authorities have the right to undertake inspections or to order inspections to be made by suitable experts or by a committee, and to take steps to remove evils. Should the inspection show that the employer is not fulfilling his obligations, he must bear the costs of such inspection.

SECTION 5.

On the authorities' demand the employer is bound on the termination of the labour contract to send the workmen back to the place where they were engaged, or to pay the costs of the return. This obligation is cancelled after the space of one year from the termination of the arrangement.

The employer is obliged to announce to the authorities the termination of the arrangement and the return of the workmen to their home, and he is obliged to give information on demand concerning each workman in his service.

The authorites may order a medical examination of the workmen to be sent home to be made at the cost of the employer.

SECTION 6.

Any workman who after the conclusion of his working arrangement with the employer still remains in the Protectorate, is bound to report himself in accordance with Section 2 to the competent authority for his place of residence.

SECTION 7.

The authorities to whom such reports must be made are the Imperial District Offices and Stations for their Districts.

SECTION 8.

A fee for these declarations is to be paid for each person in accordance with Section 3; it amounts to 10 Marks in the old Protectorate, 20 Marks in the Island Territory and 30 Marks in case the contract lasts longer than two years.

If a labour contract or agreement is renewed or prolonged, the same fees are charged.

SECTION 9.

Infringements of the provisions of this Order are punished by a fine not exceeding 600 Marks or by imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.

SECTION 10.

This Order comes into force on April 1st, 1909.

The non-indigenous natives already settled in the Protectorate on that day are bound to report themselves in accordance with Section 2, within a space of three months; in accordance with Section 3 the employers must, within the same period, report the names of the workmen in their service on the day when the order comes into force.

SECTION 11.

On the day when this Order comes into force the following will be cancelled.

The Order of the Governor of German New Guinea of February 1st, 1904, concerning the immigration and introduction of Chinese into the Protectorate of German New Guinea with the exception of the Island Territory of the Carolines, Pelew and Mariannes (Deutsches Kolonialblatt, 1904, page 253) and the provisions for carrying out this Order of February 1st, 1904, also the change in the Order regarding the engagement and introduction of coloured workmen of January 20th, 1907. CAMP NO. 20-30, DATED CAMP MYSORE, 30TH MAY 1909.

ORDER THEREON.—In consideration of the exceptional conditions of the year Kilaka (1908-09), the following orders in regard to remissions and suspensions of the Land Revenue for that year are issued for information and guidance of all concerned in lieu of those contained in the Government Proceedings above cited :—

1. Assessment on lands classed as wet.—On lands classed as wet under whatever source of irrigation, on which the wet crops have in the year Kilaka (1908-09) totally failed or the outturn is not more than 25 per cent of a normal crop (i. e., not more than 4 annas out of a normal 16 annas), one-half of the assessment shall be remitted and the other half shall be collected.

2. For occupied waste within the tract the same rate of remission shall be given as for land on which the crops totally failed. But no remission is to be given on "punnool waste," that is to say, on occupied land which is not cultivated regularly in a normal year and which it may be presumed would have been left uncultivated even if the season had been normal.

3. Where dry crops may have been raised with or without the aid of Sirkar water on land classed as wet, the same concession as in para 1 shall be granted, but the average rate of dry assessment prevailing in the village shall also be levied on the land on which dry crop has been raised. The plots need not be measured, but an entire survey number or a recognised share of a survey number shall be treated as a whole. If the dry crop entirely failed, this additional dry crop charge need not be imposed.

4. Assessment on lands classed as dry.—On lands classed as dry where the dry crops have to[illegible] their outturn was not more than 25 per cent of a normal [illegible]out of a normal 16 annas), one-half of the assess-

[illegible]ied for the [illegible]shall

10. Whole inam villages.—They are applicable also to lands in whole Inam villages under Government management.

11. General remarks.—Jamabandi officers should be careful to see that all remissions granted under these rules are well notified and entered in the Raiyats' Patta Books.

12. Remissions are to be granted for villages and homogeneous tracts taken as a whole. The concession (whether remission or suspension of revenue) should be regulated with regard to the outturn of the crop and not with reference to the circumstances of the raiyat owning the land.

13. In individual cases the Deputy Commissioner or Sub-Division Officer will be justified in refusing remission where the moiety to be collected is not punctually paid in due time.

14. The foregoing instructions will have force only in the following areas :—

CAMP NO. 20-30, DATED CAMP MYSORE, 30TH MAY 1909.

ORDER THEREON.—In consideration of the exceptional conditions of the year Kilaka (1908-09), the following orders in regard to remissions and suspensions of the Land-Revenue for that year are issued for information and guidance of all concerned in lieu of those contained in the Government Proceedings above cited :—

1. Assessment on lands classed as wet.—On lands classed as wet under whatever source of irrigation, on which the wet crops have in the year Kilaka (1908-09) totally failed or the outturn is not more than 25 per cent of a normal crop (i. e., got more than 4 annas out of a normal 16 annas), one-half of the assessment shall be remitted and the other half shall be collected.

2. For occupied waste within the tract the same rate of remission shall be given as for land on which the crops totally failed. But no remission is to be given on "mamool waste," that is to say, on occupied land which is not cultivated regularly in a normal year and which it may be presumed would have been left uncultivated even if the season had been normal.

3. Where dry crops may have been raised with or without the aid of Sirkar water on land classed as wet, the same concession as in para 1 shall be granted, but the average rate of dry assessment prevailing in the village shall also be levied on the land on which dry crop has been raised. The plots need not be measured, but an entire survey number or a recognised share of a survey number shall be treated as a whole. If the dry crop entirely failed, this additional dry crop charge need not be imposed.

4. Assessment on lands classed as dry.—On lands classed as dry where the dry crops have totally failed, or their outturn was not more than 25 per cent of a normal crop (i. e., not more than 4 annas out of a normal 16 annas), one-half of the assessment may be suspended and the other half collected.

5. Lands classed as dry on which a water rate is separately levied for the use of Sirkar water without its being incorporated with the wet assessment, shall receive the same treatment as lands classed and assessed as wet.

6. Assessment on lands classed as garden.—Where lands classed as Bagayet are usually cultivated with wet crops, the same treatment shall be accorded as above prescribed for lands classed as wet.

7. Where there has been a great loss of arecanut or cocoanut trees or of their produce, the Deputy Commissioner, for reasons to be recorded, may suspend the collection of one-half of the assessment.

8. Local cesses.—It should be distinctly understood that remissions of Local Cesses do not follow on remissions of assessment. They should invariably be collected on the entire assessment as usual (including the portion of the assessment that is remitted), a postponement being alone permissible in special cases in which the Deputy Commissioner may consider this concession necessary.

9. Minor inam lands.—The foregoing orders in regard to suspensions and remissions of revenue are applicable also to minor inam lands charged with full assessment or with a quit-rent or jodi equal to or more than the full survey valuation.

10. Whole inam villages.—They are applicable also to lands in whole Inam villages under Government management.

11. General remarks.—Jamabandi officers should be careful to see that all remissions granted under these rules are well notified and entered in the Raiyats' Patta Books.

12. Remissions are to be granted for villages and homogeneous tracts taken as a whole. The concession (whether remission or suspension of revenue) should be regulated with regard to the outturn of the crop and not with reference to the circumstances of the raiyat owning the land.

13. In individual cases the Deputy Commissioner or Sub-Division Officer will be justified in refusing remission where the moiety to be collected is not punctually paid in due time.

14. The foregoing instructions will have force only in the following areas :—

CAMP NO. 20-30, DATED CAMP MYSORE, 30TH MAY 1909.

ORDER THEREON.—In consideration of the exceptional conditions of the year Kilaka (1908-09), the following orders in regard to remissions and suspensions of the Land Revenue for that year are issued for information and guidance of all concerned in lieu of those contained in the Government Proceedings above cited :—

1. Assessment on lands classed as wet.—On lands classed as wet under whatever source of irrigation, on which the wet crops have in the year Kilaka (1908-09) totally failed or the outturn is not more than 25 per cent of a normal crop (i. e., not more than 4 annas out of a normal 16 annas), one-half of the assessment shall be remitted and the other half shall be collected.

2. For occupied waste within the tract the same rate of remission shall be given as for land on which the crops totally failed. But no remission is to be given on "mamool waste," that is to say, on occupied land which is not cultivated regularly in a normal year and which it may be presumed would have been left uncultivated even if the season had been normal.

3. Where dry crops may have been raised with or without the aid of Sirkar water on land classed as wet, the same concession as in para 1 shall be granted, but the average rate of dry assessment prevailing in the village shall also be levied on the land on which dry crop has been raised. The plots need not be measured, but an entire survey number or a recognised share of a survey number shall be treated as a whole. If the dry crop entirely failed, this additional dry crop charge need not be imposed.

4. Assessment on lands classed as dry.—On lands classed as dry where the dry crops have totally failed, or their outturn was not more than 25 per cent of a normal crop (i. e., not more than 4 annas out of a normal 16 annas), one-half of the assessment may be suspended and the other half collected.

5. Lands classed as dry on which a water rate is separately levied for the use of Sirkar water without its being incorporated with the wet assessment, shall receive the same treatment as lands classed and assessed as wet.

6. Assessment on lands classed as garden.—Where lands classed as Bagayet are usually cultivated with wet crops, the same treatment shall be accorded as above prescribed for lands classed as wet.

7. Where there has been a great loss of arecanut or cocoanut trees or of their produce, the Deputy Commissioner, for reasons to be recorded, may suspend the collection of one-half of the assessment.

8. Local cesses.—It should be distinctly understood that remissions of Local Cesses do not follow on remissions of assessment. They should invariably be collected on the entire assessment as usual (including the portion of the assessment that is remitted), a postponement being alone permissible in special cases in which the Deputy Commissioner may consider this concession necessary.

9. Minor inam lands.—The foregoing orders in regard to suspensions and remissions of revenue are applicable also to minor inam lands charged with full assessment or with a quit-rent or jodi equal to or more than the full survey valuation.

10. Whole inam villages.—They are applicable also to lands in whole Inam villages under Government management.

11. General remarks.—Jamabandi officers should be careful to see that all remissions granted under these rules are well notified and entered in the Raiyats' Patta Books.

12. Remissions are to be granted for villages and homogeneous tracts taken as a whole. The concession (whether remission or suspension of revenue) should be regulated with regard to the outturn of the crop and not with reference to the circumstances of the raiyat owning the land.

13. In individual cases the Deputy Commissioner or Sub-Division Officer will be justified in refusing remission where the moiety to be collected is not punctually paid in due time.

14. The foregoing instructions will have force only in the following areas :—

No. R. 10777—Ft. 81-08-6; dated 21*st June* 1909.

In supersession of the rules issued under Notification No. R. 1051—Ft. 185-06-6, dated the 17th August 1908, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to prescribe the following rules for the conduct of prospecting and mining operations in State Forests and such District Forests as may be specially brought within the scope of these rules, and lands under special protection.

Exploring licenses.

1. The holder of an exploring license shall obtain from the District Forest Officer permission to enter upon and explore for minerals in any forest lands within the area to which the license applies.

2. Such permission will ordinarily be freely granted, but will not entitle the licensee to cut or injure any forest growth or to dig or turn up the surface of the land to a greater depth than three feet and the licensee must, before leaving the locality, fill up any excavations which he may have made, to the satisfaction of the District Forest Officer.

3. Should the licensee desire to make trenches or sink pits to a depth greater than three feet he must obtain the sanction of the District Forest Officer in each case and pay compensation at the rate provided hereunder for any forest growth which may be injured or destroyed, and shall undertake to fill up all excavations to the satisfaction of the District Forest Officer.

Prospecting licenses and mining leases.

4. No prospecting license or mining lease shall ordinarily be granted in forest lands except with the sanction of the Conservator of Forests.

Prospecting and mining operations will generally not be permitted in plantations, coupes which have been worked over and in tracts containing specially valuable growth of sandal, teak or other species of trees.

5. Before commencing any prospecting or mining operation in any forest lands, the licensee or lessee or his duly authorized agent or representative shall give notice to the District Forest Officer of his intention so to do, and shall at the same time forward to the District Forest Officer a statement of the area or areas proposed to be operated upon and their dimensions and a sketch map on a suitable scale showing the said area or areas and their relative positions and shall deposit with the District Forest Officer the amount of compensation due on the said area or areas calculated in accordance with Rule 9. Each area to be operated upon, except such as may be required for a railway, tramway, road or footpath, shall be in the form of a rectangle, of which no side shall be less than ten yards long, and shall be defined by cairns of stones. Each area shall be distinguished by a letter of the alphabet in the abovementioned statement and map.

A consolidated statement and a complete map shall be maintained up to date and kept on the prospecting or mining block by the person in charge of the operations.

6. In any prospecting or mining block the total area which may be operated upon or cleared of forest shall not exceed 25 acres except with the permission in writing of the District Forest Officer; and no railway, tramway, road or foot-path shall be made without such permission. Such permission will be granted from time to time in each case for an area not exceeding 25 acres on the application of the licensee or lessee, provided that the additional area is required for the bona fide extension of prospecting or mining operations.

The areas operated upon shall include all those the surfaces of which have been opened up by means of pits, trenches or other excavations or covered with earth, stones, debris, machinery, buildings, etc., or upon which the forest growth has been injured or destroyed or over which any railway, tramway, road or footpath has been made.

7. In the case of all buildings, machinery or other structures erected upon the block and in the case of every place where fire or lights are used at any time or round any working or dwelling place where the District Forest Officer considers it to be necessary for safety, the forest growth shall be cleared for a distance of ten feet round the limits of such structure or place to such extent as the District Forest Officer may require.

8. As soon as possible after the receipt of the statement and map referred to in Rule 5, the District Forest Officer shall prepare a bill for the amount of compensation due at the rates specified hereunder and after crediting the amount deposited under Rule 5 shall adjust or require the licensee or lessee to adjust any balance as may be necessary. In default of payment the District Forest Officer may, at his discretion, stop all further operations and take steps to recover the amount due as a revenue demand.

In the event of any area not included in the map and statement required by Rule 5 being found to have been operated upon, the District Forest Officer may, at his discretion, stop all further operations and recover compensation for the same at double the rates provided hereunder.

9. The licensee or lessee shall—

(a) Pay a lump sum for the value of forest growth and for damage and disfigurement to the surface on all areas operated upon or cleared at the following rates :—

(1) In State Forests or Reserved lands { High and Pole Forests, Rs. 100 per acre. Other forests, including scrub, Rs. 50 per acre.

(2) In District Forests which have been specially brought within the scope of these rules. { High and Pole Forests, Rs. 50 per acre. Other forests, including scrub, Rs. 25 per acre.

(3) For railways and tramways and for roads on which traction engines are used at the foregoing rates.

(4) For ordinary cart-tracks and foot-paths, at the rate of Rs. 25 per mile.

(b) Undertake not to cut sandalwood except with permission of the Forest Department and on payment of an extra charge to be fixed by the Conservator.

N. B.—The decision of the Conservator of Forests as to whether any particular forest is high, pole or scrub, shall be final.

10. The licensee or lessee shall not fell, girdle or lop any tree outside the area or areas shown and described in the map and statement referred to in Rule 5.

11. Nothing in the foregoing rules shall be taken to exempt the licensee or lessee or his employees from liability in respect of any forest offence punishable under the Mysore Forest Regulation, 1900.

No. R. 10777—Ft. 81-08-6, dated 21*st June* 1909.

In supersession of the rules issued under Notification No. R. 1051—Ft. 135-06-6, dated the 17th August 1908, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to prescribe the following rules for the conduct of prospecting and mining operations in State Forests and such District Forests as may be specially brought within the scope of these rules, and lands under special protection.

Exploring licenses.

1. The holder of an exploring license shall obtain from the District Forest Officer permission to enter upon and explore for minerals in any forest lands within the area to which the license applies.

2. Such permission will ordinarily be freely granted, but will not entitle the licensee to cut or injure any forest growth or to dig or turn up the surface of the land to a greater depth than three feet and the licensee must, before leaving the locality, fill up any excavations which he may have made, to the satisfaction of the District Forest Officer.

3. Should the licensee desire to make trenches or sink pits to a depth greater than three feet he must obtain the sanction of the District Forest Officer in each case and pay compensation at the rate provided hereunder for any forest growth which may be injured or destroyed, and shall undertake to fill up all excavations to the satisfaction of the District Forest Officer.

Prospecting licenses and mining leases.

4. No prospecting license or mining lease shall ordinarily be granted in forest lands except with the sanction of the Conservator of Forests.

Prospecting and mining operations will generally not be permitted in plantations, coupes which have been worked over and in tracts containing specially valuable growth of sandal, teak or other species of trees.

5. Before commencing any prospecting or mining operation in any forest lands, the licensee or lessee or his duly authorized agent or representative shall give notice to the District Forest Officer of his intention so to do, and shall at the same time forward to the District Forest Officer a statement of the area or areas proposed to be operated upon and their dimensions, and a sketch map on a suitable scale showing the said area or areas and their relative positions and shall deposit with the District Forest Officer the amount of compensation due on the said area or areas calculated in accordance with Rule 9. Each area to be operated upon, except such as may be required for a railway, tramway, road or foot-path, shall be in the form of a rectangle, of which no side shall be less than ten yards long, and shall be defined by cairns of stones. Each area shall be distinguished by a letter of the alphabet in the abovementioned statement and map.

A consolidated statement and a complete map shall be maintained up to date and kept on the prospecting or mining block by the person in charge of the operations.

6. In any prospecting or mining block the total area which may be operated upon or cleared of forest shall not exceed 25 acres except with the permission in writing of the District Forest Officer; and no railway, tramway, road or foot-path shall be made without such permission. Such permission will be granted from time to time in each case for an area not exceeding 25 acres on the application of the licensee or lessee, provided that the additional area is required for the bona fide extension of prospecting or mining operations.

The areas operated upon shall include all those the surfaces of which have been opened up by means of pits, trenches or other excavations or covered with earth, stones, debris, machinery, buildings, etc., or upon which the forest growth has been injured or destroyed or over which any railway, tramway, road or foot-path has been made.

7. In the case of all buildings, machinery or other structures erected upon the block and in the case of every place where fire or lights are used at any time or round any working or dwelling place where the District Forest Officer considers it to be necessary for safety, the forest growth shall be cleared for a distance of ten feet round the limits of such structure or place to such extent as the District Forest Officer may require.

8. As soon as possible after the receipt of the statement and map referred to in Rule 5, the District Forest Officer shall prepare a bill for the amount of compensation due at the rates specified hereunder and after crediting the amount deposited under Rule 5 shall adjust or require the licensee or lessee to adjust any balance as may be necessary. In default of payment the District Forest Officer may, at his discretion, stop all further operations and take steps to recover the amount due as a revenue demand.

In the event of any area not included in the map and statement required by Rule 5 being found to have been operated upon, the District Forest Officer may, at his discretion, stop all further operations and recover compensation for the same at double the rates provided hereunder.

9. The licensee or lessee shall—

(a) Pay a lump sum for the value of forest growth and for damage and disfigurement to the surface on all areas operated upon or cleared at the following rates:—

(1) In State Forests or Reserved lands { High and Pole Forests, Rs. 100 per acre. Other forests, including scrub, Rs. 50 per acre.

(2) In District Forests which have been specially brought within the scope of these rules. { High and Pole Forests, Rs. 50 per acre. Other forests, including scrub, Rs. 25 per acre.

(3) For railways and tramways and for roads on which traction engines are used at the foregoing rates.

(4) For ordinary cart-tracks and foot-paths, at the rate of Rs. 25 per mile.

(b) Undertake not to cut sandalwood except with permission of the Forest Department and on payment of an extra charge to be fixed by the Conservator.

N. B.—The decision of the Conservator of Forests as to whether any particular forest is high, pole or scrub, shall be final.

10. The licensee or lessee shall not fell, girdle or lop any tree outside the area or areas shown and described in the map and statement referred to in Rule 5.

11. Nothing in the foregoing rules shall be taken to exempt the licensee or lessee or his employees from liability in respect of any forest offence punishable under the Mysore Forest Regulation, 1900.

No. R. 10777—Ft. 81-03-6, dated 21*st June* 1909.

In supersession of the rules issued under Notification No. R. 1051—Ft. 135-06-6, dated the 17th August 1908, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to prescribe the following rules for the conduct of prospecting and mining operations in State Forests and such District Forests as may be specially brought within the scope of these rules, and lands under special protection :—

Exploring licenses.

1. The holder of an exploring license shall obtain from the District Forest Officer permission to enter upon and explore for minerals in any forest lands within the area to which the license applies.

2. Such permission will ordinarily be freely granted, but will not entitle the licensee to cut or injure any forest growth or to dig or turn up the surface of the land to a greater depth than three feet and the licensee must, before leaving the locality, fill up any excavations which he may have made, to the satisfaction of the District Forest Officer.

3. Should the licensee desire to make trenches or sink pits to a depth greater than three feet he must obtain the sanction of the District Forest Officer in each case and pay compensation at the rate provided hereunder for any forest growth which may be injured or destroyed, and shall undertake to fill up all excavations to the satisfaction of the District Forest Officer.

Prospecting licenses and mining leases.

4. No prospecting license or mining lease shall ordinarily be granted in forest lands except with the sanction of the Conservator of Forests.

Prospecting and mining operations will generally not be permitted in plantations, coupes which have been worked over and in tracts containing specially valuable growth of sandal, teak or other species of trees.

5. Before commencing any prospecting or mining operation in any forest lands, the licensee or lessee or his duly authorized agent or representative shall give notice to the District Forest Officer of his intention so to do, and shall at the same time forward to the District Forest Officer a statement of the area or areas proposed to be operated upon and their dimensions and a sketch map on a suitable scale showing the said area or areas and their relative positions and shall deposit with the District Forest Officer the amount of compensation due on the said area or areas calculated in accordance with Rule 9. Each area to be operated upon, except such as may be required for a railway, tramway, road or foot-path, shall be in the form of a rectangle, of which no side shall be less than ten yards long, and shall be defined by cairns of stones. Each area shall be distinguished by a letter of the alphabet in the abovementioned statement and map.

A consolidated statement and a complete map shall be maintained up to date and kept on the prospecting or mining block by the person in charge of the operations.

6. In any prospecting or mining block the total area which may be operated upon or cleared of forest shall not exceed 25 acres except with the permission in writing of the District Forest Officer; and no railway, tramway, road or foot-path shall be made without such permission. Such permission will be granted from time to time in each case for an area not exceeding 25 acres on the application of the licensee or lessee, provided that the additional area is required for the bona fide extension of prospecting or mining operations.

The areas operated upon shall include all those the surfaces of which have been opened up by means of pits, trenches or other excavations or covered with earth, stones, debris, machinery, buildings, etc., or upon which the forest growth has been injured or destroyed or over which any railway, tramway, road or foot-path has been made.

7. In the case of all buildings, machinery or other structures erected upon the block and in the case of every place where fire or lights are used at any time or round any working or dwelling place where the District Forest Officer considers it to be necessary for safety, the forest growth shall be cleared for a distance of ten feet round the limits of such structure or place to such extent as the District Forest Officer may require.

8. As soon as possible after the receipt of the statement and map referred to in Rule 5, the District Forest Officer shall prepare a bill for the amount of compensation due at the rates specified hereunder and after crediting the amount deposited under Rule 5 shall adjust or require the licensee or lessee to adjust any balance as may be necessary. In default of payment the District Forest Officer may, at his discretion, stop all further operations and take steps to recover the amount due as a revenue demand.

In the event of any area not included in the map and statement required by Rule 5 being found to have been operated upon, the District Forest Officer may, at his discretion, stop all further operations and recover compensation for the same at double the rates provided hereunder.

9. The licensee or lessee shall—

It then continues southwards touching Survey Nos. 253, 254, 255, 256 and 257 under the south channel and then turning towards the west, the line passes along the boundary of the Amani Hirekere. It then skirts round the south channel to the west, cutting across the same in Survey No. 22 of the Suranhalli village, running along the extremities of Survey Nos. 23, 27, 28, 29, 30, 32, 33, 34, 35 and 36 forming the boundary of the said village. RESOLUTION.—In view of the practical difficulty of always arranging for the existence of means of communication between the Guard and every passenger vehicle on a mixed train, owing to the absence of horizontal handrails and foot-boards on many coaches, as well as to the large proportion of unbraked and unpiped goods vehicles still running on most railways: and considering the fact that the speed of mixed trains is comparatively slow and that these trains stop at every station, the railway Board have decided to make the provision of means of communication between the Guard and every passenger vehicle on a mixed train permissive in certain cases, instead of compulsory, as at present.

2. In exercise, therefore, of the powers conferred by the notification of the Government of India in the Department of Commerce and Industry, No. 801, dated the 24th March 1905, read in the preamble above, the Railway Board sanction, under Section 47, sub-sections (1) and (4), of the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890), as in force in British India or as locally applied, and in supersession of the modification promulgated with Railway Board's resolution No. 2171 R. T, dated the 11th December 1908, and published under their Notification No. 25, dated the 15th January 1909, the adoption, by the administrations of all lines of railway administered by the Government, of the modification specified in the annexure hereto in the General Rules for working open lines of railway, which were promulgated with Railway Board's Circular No. R. T. 89-A—5, dated the 8th September 1906.

3. The Railway Board also desire that the said modification may be brought to the notice of the administrations of the several railways not administered by the Government and which are under ~~the control of the Local Government~~ your control and that the Agents and Managers of those railways may be invited to submit formal applications for the adoption of the said modification. They also desire that the Agents and Managers of other lines will submit similar applications.

BANGALORE, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1909.

NOTIFICATION.

No. Fl. 1268—G. F. 86-09-1, DATED BANGALORE, 24TH AUGUST 1909.

READ.—Under the system hitherto in force, the financial programme of Government for any particular official year was announced by the Dewan in his speech to the Representative Assembly in September or October of that year, i.e., after three or four months of the year had elapsed. A copy of the State Budget was also laid on the table of the Assembly for the information of the Representatives and through them, of the public. The facts connected with the financial administration for any year thus came to the knowledge of the public rather late in the year and information furnished was by that time stale. Under these circumstances the Government have resolved that with effect from the year 1909-10 the State Budget should be published in the official Gazette at the earliest possible date after it is finally passed by His Highness the Maharaja. This procedure, it is hoped, will enable the public and the Representative Assembly to become acquainted with all the details of the financial programme of the year in good time.

2. Accordingly the State Budget for 1909-10 with a brief financial statement explaining its salient features is published in the following pages.

J. S. CHAKRAVARTI,
Financial Secretary to Government.

Financial Statement and Budget Estimates of the Mysore State, 1909-10.

Preliminary Remarks.

As this is the first occasion on which the State Budget is being published in the official Gazette for the information of the public, it is necessary to offer a few words of explanation with reference to certain terms of a technical nature the use of which is unavoidable in connection with the budget.

2. The accounts of the State are compiled by the Comptroller from the vouchers and cash accounts received from Treasuries. The financial year is from 1st July to 30th June following, but the accounts of any year cannot be ready till some time after the end of the year has elapsed. The accounts of a year ending 30th June have to be kept "open" till the 30th of November following, to admit of adjustments being made on account of transactions relating to this Government taking place at a distance which come on the books of this Government through the accounts of other account offices. The final accounts for a year ending 30th June can thus be ready only about the end of December following. It is therefore clear that the latest year of which the final accounts are now available is 1907-08.

3. The preliminary arrangements for framing the budget estimates for any year are taken in hand about the month of February of the preceding official year. Only eight months of a year are, therefore, over when the work of estimating the next year's revenue and expenditure under each head has to be undertaken. The actual figures for eight months of the first year are, therefore, ascertained and on the basis of eight months' actuals, "Revised Estimates" for the year are prepared by adding the estimated figures for the remaining four months. The "Revised Estimates" thus prepared of the year about to expire are very useful in framing the budget estimates of the ensuing year.

4. For the purpose of following the course of revenue and expenditure as laid down in the budget estimates for any year, it is necessary to study the figures of three consecutive years, ending with the one for which the budget is under consideration. For instance, along with the proposed estimates for 1909-10 the corresponding figures for the two previous years, namely, 1907-08 and 1908-09, would be required for a study of the present financial position and for its comparison with the position in the preceding two years. The detailed estimates therefore give against each head the figures as they appear in the "Accounts" of 1907-08 and in the "Revised Estimates" for 1908-09 along with those in the budget estimates for 1909-10. A brief general review of the Accounts of 1907-08 and of the revised estimates of 1908-09 is also given below before the figures of the budget estimates for 1909-10 are discussed. For the accounts for 1907-08 a review of the total figures for Revenue and Expenditure only is here considered sufficient. A full and detailed Appropriation Report on the accounts of each year is drawn up by the Comptroller and submitted to Government, and a reference may be made to it for information on any point connected with the final accounts.

Accounts of 1907-08.

5. The budget estimates of 1907-08 provided for receipts and expenditure as shown below:—

	Rs.
Revenue	2,26,08,000
Expenditure	2,12,01,000
Difference	14,07,000

This difference was shown in the budget as follows:—

Set aside from the Cauvery Power Scheme Revenue for redemption of 4 per cent loan of 20 lakhs ...	1,33,000
Net income from the Cauvery Power Scheme appropriated for replenishment of cash balance	10,34,000
Famine Insurance Reserve	2,00,000
Budget Surplus	40,000
Total ...	14,07,000

6. In the accounts of 1907-08 as finally closed the figures stand as follows :—

	Rs.
Revenue and receipts ...	2,41,40,694
Expenditure	2,11,58,680
Difference ...	29,82,014

This difference appears in the accounts as follows :—

	Rs.
Set aside from the Cauvery Power Scheme Revenue for redemption of the 4 per cent loan of 20 lakhs ...	1,33,333
Net income from the Cauvery Power Scheme appropriated for replenishment of cash balance	12,30,228
Famine Insurance Reserve	2,00,000
Budget Surplus	14,18,453

7. The accounts of 1907-08 were, therefore, better than the estimates by Rs. 15,75,014, and this result was due mainly to the improvement on the revenue side, to which most of the important heads of revenue, namely, Land Revenue, Forest, Excise, Railways and the Cauvery Power Scheme, contributed. The estimate of revenue proved too cautious, while that of expenditure was on the whole well foreseen, the difference between the total estimate and the total actual expenditure being less than half a lakh. There were increases under some of the heads of expenditure but they were counterbalanced by savings on the grants under other heads. The whole of the building contribution of five lakhs promised for the Indian Institute of Science was paid in 1907-08.

Revised Estimates for 1908-09.

8. The budget estimates for 1908-09 provided for receipts and expenditure as shown below :—

	Rs.
Revenue and other receipts	2,28,15,000
Expenditure	2,13,89,000
Difference ...	14,26,000

The difference was, as usual, shown in the Budget as follows :—

	Rs.
Set aside from the Cauvery Power Scheme revenue for redemption of the 4 per cent loan of 20 lakhs ...	1,33,000
Net income from the Cauvery Power Scheme appropriated for replenishment of cash balance	10,77,000
Famine Insurance Reserve	2,00,000
Budget Surplus	16,000
	14,26,000

9. In the revised estimates for 1908-09, prepared on the basis of eight months' actual expenditure from July 1908 to February 1909, the figures stand as follow :—

	Rs.
Revenue and other receipts	2,22,46,000
Expenditure	2,12,94,000
Difference ...	9,52,000

THE PRESIDENT.—With the permission of the Council and for the convenience of the Revenue Commissioner (Rajakaryapravina Mr. A. Rangaswami Iyengar) there will be a slight change in the order of subjects to be taken up. I now call upon Mr. Rangaswami Iyengar to move proposition No. 14 on the agenda.

The Bill to provide a law relating to Treasure-Trove in Mysore.

RAJAKARYAPRAVINA MR. A. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR then moved that the report of the Select Committee on the Bill to provide a law relating to treasure-trove in Mysore and the Bill as amended by the Committee be taken up for consideration ; and in doing so, he said :—

SIR,—In presenting the report of the Select Committee on the treasure-trove Bill, I beg leave to state that at the meeting of this Council on 16th December 1908, this Bill was introduced by me and read in Council and a Select Committee appointed. The provisions of the Bill were very carefully examined by the Select Committee at its meetings and a few alterations and additions which were considered necessary were adopted. The Committee were unanimous as regards all the alterations proposed excepting one on which Mr. Nagappa has recorded a note of dissent. The Bill as altered in Committee was published with a detailed report with Notification No. 13, dated 13th July 1909. Thus the Bill as amended has been before the public for more than six weeks but has not so far elicited any complaint or unfavourable criticism.

Before proceeding to state the changes introduced into the Bill by the Select Committee in order to show in what respects it differs from Act VI of 1878 of the Government of India, I beg briefly to refer to the circumstances under which this Bill was undertaken.

As the Members of this Council are aware, the existing law on treasure-trove is contained in Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 6, dated 17th April 1867, which was adapted from Regulation XI of 1832 of the Madras Code. The Government of India Act, VI of 1878, was then passed (as explained by the Hon'ble Sir Edward Bayley) after a careful consideration of the principles of the law on the subject prevailing in many of the States of Europe.

Though the legality of the notification of the Chief Commissioner was doubted so early as 1886 and though the need for the early passing of a Regulation was admitted, the members of the Mysore Government were unwilling to materially alter the provisions of the notification which had been in force and had been acted upon for many years. Many drafts were tentatively prepared and considered but it was finally resolved to adopt the British enactment with suitable alterations. A Draft Regulation was accordingly prepared and submitted to the Council and the same as finally revised by the Select Committee is now before the Council.

With the assistance of marginal notes and the special printing of the clauses in the Draft Bill the Council will be able to follow the changes that have been introduced and to judge of their appropriateness. I shall proceed to refer to them in the order in which they occur in the Bill.

The first addition that calls for notice is the definition of the term "finder" which has been added in clause 3. Though the meaning of the word is fairly clear and simple, some difficulty might be felt in deciding under certain circumstances as to who should be considered to have really found the treasure and it was considered advisable to add a definition to indicate in what sense "finder" should be construed. The definition or comment is added to indicate that the employer or the principal at whose bidding the actual finder of the treasure worked should be regarded as the finder. When it is recollected that articles discovered in the course of the explorations directed by the Archæologists and others could come under the class of treasure-trove, the practical use of this definition would be obvious.

An additional clause has been added to the definition of "owner" expressly bringing out the right of Government to step in as owner of the land where the treasure-trove might be found, in accordance with the intention of the Select Committee to reserve to Government the right to claim a part of the treasure-trove under certain circumstances, and I shall have to refer to this provision in greater detail later on.

Sections 8 and 9 of Act VI of 1878 provide for treasure being considered ownerless unless there is reason to believe that the treasure was hidden within 100 years before the date of its being found. But as in practice it would be very difficult for any person to produce evidence to prove that it was so hidden and as it is possible to conceive of cases where the right of a person to claim the treasure could be made out, though without being able to prove satisfactorily that the treasure had been hidden within that period, it has been considered advisable to safeguard such rights by adding the words "or otherwise" in clauses 11, 12 (b) and 13.

I now beg to refer to clause 16 of the Bill, which is a provision contained in the Rules of 1867 and which the Government has thought fit to retain in the new enactment and which is the only provision which has been objected to by one of the members of the Select Committee in the note of dissent already referred to.

I have to refer to this out of its order as the modification in clause 12 is only a logical consequence of it and would not be clear without reference to it. As it is an important deviation from the policy of Act VI of 1878, I think it desirable to discuss it in some detail. The Hon'ble Sir Edward Bayley when introducing the Bill relating to "Treasure-Trove" referred to the policy which had ruled the various systems of the law on the subject and observed that "the principle which the existing Indian Law, so far as there was any law, had adopted, was practically that of the Middle Ages;" that "according to it the State might be said to assume its right but to waive it on certain conditions and within certain limits in favor of the finder;" and that "where no prior claim could be proved, it was at least a fair contention that property of any value so found should pass to the public treasury and be used for the purposes of the general community." Again, in presenting the report of the Select Committee for consideration he observed that "the existing law was founded upon the principle that all treasure-trove lapsed to and became the property of the State. That was a principle which was in theory perfectly defensible and was not to be denied." When introducing the Bill before the Legislative Council, he remarked that "he might say roughly that the purport of the law in this respect was to assert the general right of the State but to waive that right upon certain conditions in favor of the finder when the property did not exceed the value of a lakh of rupees though the law had never brought one single rupee worth to the Government Treasury." Notwithstanding these clear admissions in favor of the State, its right was deliberately abandoned in the hope that by such a measure finders would be induced to readily come forward and report all cases of the discovery of hidden treasure. It is difficult to say how far this hope was realized as there are no statistics available on the subject. But there are other reasons which I shall presently mention, from which it will be clear that the surrender of the rights of Government can really have no effect one way or the other.

The Government does not claim any share in the treasure-trove when it does not exceed a lakh and if such a sum cannot be a sufficient bait for report of the find, it is very unlikely, nay impossible, that the release of Government claim upon the excess can be a more potent factor. Though no instances of hidden treasure exceeding a lakh in value have been reported, it cannot be asserted that in India some cases of the kind may not come to light, and Mr. Bayley himself said." that there was much hidden treasure in India, and that much was being perpetually brought to light in various parts of the country and that very large portion of it was of importance." Even though the Government may surrender their right, they cannot very well ignore the claims of others and to a great degree it is the vague fear of such possible claims coming in conflict and depriving the finder entirely of his gain and, also, in part, the secretive nature of the people which is averse from admitting the coming of hidden treasure even in a lawful manner, which have operated to prevent the discovery of hidden treasure seeing the light of day. At best these are only inducements to the finder to report cases of the discovery of hidden treasure. But the penalties attaching to the omission to report such cases are so severe that, to a reasonable mind, they should have a much stronger force than even those inducements, and if these fail, it is scarcely likely that the mere fact of the Government foregoing its right to the excess over one lakh can be more effective.

I can, therefore, confidently submit to the Council that no good purpose is served by sacrificing the right of Government in toto and making an innovation in the law or policy which has been in force in the State for many years.

I may also submit that almost all the high officers of this State including Mr. Thumboo Chetty, Mr. Chentsal Rao, Sir Sheshadri Iyer, and Sir P. N. Krishna Murti have held the opinion that the policy of our Rules was safer to follow than that of Act VI of 1878 in this respect.

These remarks are, I believe, sufficient to meet the objection of Mr. Nagappa. I may also point out that he is slightly in error in thinking that the law as administered in British India, i.e., Act VI of 1878, is practically the law of the Middle Ages, which, as explained by the Hon'ble Sir Edward Bayley, is quite the reverse.

In Section 12 some modification has been introduced in para 2 to give effect to this policy and also the share of the finder has been reduced to half instead of three-fourths as in Act VI of 1878. The latter alteration was made in the original Draft Bill as presented to the Council in accordance with the views expressed by the various officers of the State.

In clause 19 a provision has been introduced to make the procedure clear and in order to safeguard the rights of persons who might have been, without any fault of their own and under justifiable circumstances, prevented from coming forward to present their claims within the time prescribed in the Deputy Commissioner's notification.

It remains for me now only to commend for the favorable consideration of the Council the recommendation of the Select Committee that in any case the finder should be indemnified for his trouble and should be granted such reasonable compensation including actual expenses incurred when he is not otherwise benefited by the discovery. The existing rules provide for it and it is but reasonable that he should have this advantage not only as a matter of justice but also to serve as an inducement against concealment of the discovery of any treasure.

In conclusion, I have only to urge that we have adhered in the main to the law as it is in force in British India, that the modifications we have introduced do not materially cut into the rights of the finder and are not in any way calculated to make him less inclined to report the discovery of any treasure ; and I therefore beg to move under Section 46 of the Rules relating to the conduct of the business of this Council that the Bill and the report be taken into consideration at once.

RAJAMANTRAPRAVINA MR. C. SRINIVASAIYENGAR seconded the motion.

MR. H. V. NANJUNDAYYA in supporting the same spoke as follows :—

SIR,—I have to say one or two words in this connection. It appears to me that a considerable amount of controversy might be raised on the insertion of the words " or otherwise " in clauses 11 and 12 of the Bill. The question of limitation does not arise in this case, because it cannot be said that either the treasure-trove was in the possession of any person who originally deposited it or his representative, or in the adverse possession of the party who is in possession of the field or the land in which it was buried. But, as a matter of convenience, I believe, it was decided, when the Act of British India was passed, that 100 years should be taken practically as the limit of time within which a claim might be advanced. Of course, it would be difficult to conceive of cases in which parties would be able to prove that the treasure which had been buried more than 100 years before had belonged to their ancestors. The effect of introducing the expression "or otherwise" in these clauses would be practically to take away this limitation and to make it open to the parties to prove that the property that has been buried any number of years previous to the discovery might have belonged to their ancestors. As I already observed, it would be extremely difficult to make good such a contention. And taking into consideration this difficulty, I am disposed, after all, to agree with the learned mover of the Bill, that there would be no harm in retaining the expression "or otherwise."

Perhaps it may also interest the Council to know what the Hindu Law on the subject of the treasure-trove is. It would show that, in matters of this kind, lapse of centuries would make little difference. The Hindu Law has it that when a man can prove his claim to the treasure-trove, the King shall take one-sixth or one-twelfth part of it: and the commentators say that, of the treasure-trove which is secretly buried in the ground, the amount taken by the King would depend on the virtues of the finder, his caste, etc. There was no limitation prescribed for the claims of owners. In fact that property only was considered treasure-trove, of which the owner was not known. It is also provided that notice should be given to the King, failing which the finder was liable to be treated as a thief. The owner of the land was not entitled to any share at all under the old law. The King was entitled to a half or to nothing if the finder happened to be a Brahmin. These are the main provisions, and they show that there is not very much difference between the law of ancient India and that of the present; and between the law in this respect in the Middle Ages and at present in Europe.

The only other point is that connected with the amendment proposed by Mr. B. Nagappa, viz., that the Government should give up their claims to the excess above one lakh of rupees in value. As was observed by the Revenue Commissioner, it is rarely that such cases would occur and, in fact, no such cases have been known to us. As the section is rather providing practically for imaginary cases, it is just as well that we keep the present limit of a lakh of rupees in our proposed Regulation.

For these reasons, I beg to support the motion of the Revenue Commissioner.

Mr. Tirumalachar.—I beg also to support Mr. Rangaswami Iyengar's motion. With reference to Mr. Nagappa's remarks on clause 16 of the Bill under consideration, I beg to state that whatever may have been the law under the Roman Emperors of old, or in the Middle Ages of Europe, ancient Indian law at all events was in favor of the King's taking one-half of all hidden treasure discovered. The Institutes of Manu to which Mr. Nanjundayya just now referred contain a distinct provision that the King's share in the treasure-trove shall be one-half. I think he anticipated me by quoting the translation from Manu. But I think there is another passage in Manu which, for the information of the Council, I may be permitted to read:—

ನಿಧೀನಾಂತು ಪುರಾಣಾನಾಂಧಾತೂನಾಮೇವ ಚಕ್ಷಿತೌ । ಅರ್ಧಭಾಗಕ್ಷಣಾದ್ರಾಜಾಭೂಮೇರಧಿಪತಿರ್ಹಿ ಸಃ ।

"The King obtains one-half of ancient hoards, and metals (found) in the ground by reason (of his giving) protection, (and) because he is the lord of the soil."

(The Institutes of Manu, chapter 8, verse 39.)

Mr. Nanjundayya quoted the earlier passage in the same chapter, which is,

ವದೇದ್ಧನಮಿತಿಯೋಬ್ರೂಯಾದನ್ವಿಧಂತತ್ಯೇನಮಾನವಃ । ತಸ್ಯಾದದೀತಷಡ್ಭಾಗಂರಾಜಾದ್ವಾದಶಮೇವವಾ ।

"From that man who shall truly say with respect to treasure-trove 'this belongs to me,' the King may take one-sixth or one-twelfth part."

(The Institutes of Manu, chapter 8, verse 35.)

As Mr. Rangaswami Iyengar explained, the chances of a person discovering more than a lakh of rupees worth of treasure-trove will be extremely rare, and may not be even one in ten thousand. The finder will practically get almost all the treasure and the King will get little or nothing. Under these circumstances, I support clause 16 of the Bill as it stands and think that it is a good provision ; for this reason that even Manu did not contemplate that the King should not receive anything. On the other hand, he expressly laid down that he shall receive one-half in all cases. This is the very old law which had been replaced by the law of the Middle Ages and here, in Mysore, we have a very wholesome provision made that the finder shall be entitled to the treasure up to one lakh of rupees and anything beyond shall go to Government.

The motion for the consideration of the report of the Select Committee and the Bill as amended by them was put to the Council and carried.

RAJAKARYAPRAVINA MR. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR then moved that the following proviso be added to clause 8 of the above Bill, viz. : —

"Provided that in the event of the claimant succeeding in his suit, it shall be competent to the Civil Court to award the finder a reward not exceeding one-fourth the value of the treasure."

In so doing, he said :—

SIR,—As the members of the Council are well aware, under the Bill as it stands, the finder will get half the treasure when the same is declared ownerless. This would be a sufficient inducement for him to report the find and also sufficient compensation for his trouble or the luck which helped him to find the treasure. But when under clause 8 the claimant to the treasure is referred to a Civil Court and eventually succeeds in establishing his right to the treasure either as the owner himself or as the successor of the original owner of the property, the Civil Court will have no option but to decree the whole of the treasure to the claimant. The finder will then have to go without any reward for the trouble he has taken. The object of the new enactment is to increase the chances of the report of the finding of the treasure. If the finder has to go without any reward and if he is kept in fear that in case he makes the find public some claimant might appear and carry off the whole without leaving anything to himself, the chances are that such finder will rather try to conceal the discovery than report it. To give him some substantial portion of the treasure for discovering it would be to offer him an incentive to the publication of the discovery.

It was with this object that the Select Committee recommended some addition to the Bill. But they did not feel themselves justified in making that addition at that stage, as they wanted to ascertain the sense of this Council before their intention was reduced to practice.

Now, with the permission of the Council, I beg to move that this additional clause be added to clause 8 of the Bill.

MR. C. SRINIVASAIENGAR.—Under clause 11, if there is no owner of the land claiming the treasure or other person entitled to it, the finder gets the whole. Under clause 12, the finder shares the treasure with the owner of the land or with the person who establishes his right to it in some other manner. There is only one class of cases in which, as the Bill now stands, the owner will go without anything for himself : that is, the cases contemplated in clause 8. If a person comes forward and proves that the treasure belongs to him, that it was hidden by him or by some person through whom he claims, within the past 100 years,—that person is entitled to a decree from a Civil Court for the possession of the treasure. In such cases, the finder will get nothing. And it is possible that in such cases the finder will have incurred some expenses for which he should be re-imbursed. Under the present rules, there is provision for re-imbursing him even as a reward. So, some provision for this was considered reasonable by the Select Committee and I am glad that the Government have viewed the Committee's recommendation favorably.

I accordingly beg to second the motion.

The Council agreed unanimously to the adoption of the proviso to clause 8.

MR. NAGAPPA.—SIR,—I beg to move that clause 16 of the above Bill and the words in italics appearing in clause 12, viz., "not exceeding a lakh of rupees in amount or value" and the word "remainder" occurring after the words "the other half" be omitted.

As has been observed by the learned mover (Mr. Rangaswami Iyengar), the provision contained in clause 16 is a new departure from the Indian Act. The reason that has been adduced against my amendment, so far as I can gather from the learned mover's speech, is that the reason which induced the Government of India to waive its claim was the hope (of the Hon'ble Sir Edward Bayley) that the finders would come forward and report about the treasure discovered by them.

The simple answer to this argument is that the penalties which have been imposed by this Regulation are so very severe as would act as a check to the finder against not reporting. He will not only lose the treasure, but will also be prosecuted. So, I submit that the reason which induced the Hon'ble Sir Edward Bayley to waive the claim in British India is amply met by the penalties.

The second reason alleged by the mover is that the provisions of clause 16 have been in force for many years, that several statesmen have expressed themselves in its favor and that there is therefore no reason to make a new departure now.

I may bring to the notice of the Council that the Notification of 1867 is of doubtful legality, inasmuch as it has not received the sanction of the Government of India. If that measure was not called in question, it was because cases have not occurred to enforce that rule. Mainly to rely upon a measure which is of doubtful legality and to say, that we have to enforce it, is, I submit, to stand on a very slippery ground.

The learned mover said that I was in error in thinking that the law in British India is that of Middle Ages.

I may only refer him to Hon'ble Sir Edward Bayley's speech in support of my contention :—

"The principle which the existing Indian Law, so far as there was any law, "had adopted, was practically that of the Middle Ages. It might be said to assume "the right of the State, but to waive it on certain conditions and within certain "limits in favor of the finder. He thought that on broad principles of equity, "that principle might very fairly be defended. Where no prior claim could be "proved, it was at least a fair contention that property of any value so found "should pass to the public treasury, and be used for the purposes of the general "community. The real objection in adopting this principle was, that in practice "it could not be enforced and as in the case of all other laws which could not be "enforced, it became not only useless, but mischievous and demoralizing. He did "not mean to assert that the real reason of the provisions of the Indian Law or of "the English Law from which it was mutated, showed that it actually was founded "on this principle. He believed as a matter of history that it was founded rather "on feudal ideas which it was unnecessary here to discuss. The principle which "the present Bill proposed to adopt was that, practically of the old Roman Law of "the Emperor Hadrian, and of the French and Louisianian Codes and to a certain "extent also, as he would presently explain, of the law as it now stood (for it had "been not very long since altered) in Denmark."

The 4th reason urged against my amendment is that cases of the nature covered by my amendment are very rare. My answer is that the cases are very rare is no reason why we should give up a principle. The principle is whether the State has any right to claim the property. The antecedent right of the person has been recognized in the Bill by a distinct provision. When we have recognized that, how can the State come forward and say "we can only recognize your right up to a lakh of rupees"? It is only just that the State should give up the entire right.

RAJAMANTRAPRAVINA Mr. C. SRINIVASIENGAR.—It is the case of the finder that is contemplated in clause 16 and not of the owner.

RAJAKARYAPRAVINA MR. A. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR.—It is only the finder that will not be given more than a lakh. Anything above that will go to Government. The owner of the treasure, if he proves his claim, gets the whole.

MR. B. NAGAPPA.—The finder steps in when the antecedent rights are not recognized. My learned friend Mr. Tirumalachar quoted from Manu a passage laying down the law about the treasure-trove. But my doubt is whether at any time that law was enforced. The modern tendency in all countries is not to recognize the right of the State to the hidden treasure discovered. The law in England is quite different from the law in British India. English Law follows for the most part the feudal system; and we cannot bring in the analogy of the English Law with reference to Indian conditions, where the land tenure is so different. On principle, the State should not come in for any portion of the treasure-trove.

The motion was not seconded and was accordingly lost.

RAJAKARYAPRAVINA MR. A. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR.—There is another motion standing in my name, and that is, that the Bill as amended be taken up and passed at a subsequent meeting of Council.

We have had a fairly full discussion of the amended Bill as published and placed before the Council; and Mr. Nagappa, who had recorded a Note of Dissent on one point in the Select Committee and who had also moved on the same subject here, was not seconded. I think the Government have not received any objections from the public. So, it is only to be passed after reasonable notice. Hence, I move that the Bill be taken up and passed at the next meeting.

RAJAMANTRAPRAVINA MR. C. SRINIVASIENGAR seconded the motion.

The motion was put to the Council and carried.

Bill further to amend the Code of Civil Procedure.

MR. S. NARAYANA RAO.—SIR,—I beg to move that leave be granted to withdraw the Bill introduced at the meeting held on Monday the 21st February 1908, relating to the amendment of Section 310A of the existing Code of Civil Procedure. When this Bill was introduced at the said meeting, the British Indian Legislature had under their contemplation the remodelling of their whole Code of Civil Procedure. They have subsequently passed their Act V of 1908, recasting the Civil Procedure Code and re-arranging certain portions thereof on different principles altogether. In view of the fact that a motion will next be made for permission to introduce a Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to the procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature in this State also, based on the Indian Act V of 1908, it is desirable that the present Bill should be withdrawn. I therefore ask for permission to withdraw the same.

MR. K. S. CHANDRASEKHARA AIYAR seconded the motion.

The motion was put to the Council and carried.

Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature in Mysore.

MR. H. V. NANJUNDAYYA, in moving for leave to introduce the above Bill said as follows:—

SIR,—The object of this Bill which I have the honour to present to you is to introduce into Mysore the Code of Civil Procedure in the form adopted in British India in Act V of 1908, after the long deliberations of an exceptionally strong Committee, among whom our present learned Chief Judge was one of the prominent members. The present Code contains 653 sections, but a glance at the Bill before you will show that the number of sections is reduced to 158, which is about a fourth of the old size. A comparison of the table of contents with that prefixed to the Code now in force will likewise show that a large number of omissions and alterations have been made. You need not, however, be startled by these apparent changes, and imagine that we have placed before you any radical or revolutionary piece of legislation. Appended to the main Regulation are a number of orders to which almost the whole of the matter left out in the body is transferred almost bodily. They contain altogether 564 sections, so that you will see there has been no reduction in the bulk of this huge enactment. What then, it may be asked, is the necessity for this drastic change of form in the Code? for, it is undoubted that there are always serious inconveniences in altering the form and the familiar numbering of the provisions of a Code so often consulted in practice. Those who have learnt their law in the old Code will always be at a loss, where a familiar rule which they can quote by memory from the old Code is found in the new, and will need a concordance to help them to find out whether a reported decision is in accordance with what was the previous view.

The object of the Indian legislature seems to have been mainly twofold. The old Code had put together all its provisions in a certain logical order indeed but without due discrimination of their comparative importance, and rules involving important principles of jurisprudence which could scarcely be altered were placed along with rules of minor procedure which would need changing often according to place and experience gained in the course of their administration. The second fact that was chiefly instrumental in dictating the change was that the Code had to be applied over such a large area consisting of various provinces differing in the intelligence and progress of the people, and of various kinds of judges and lawyers, that it was considered highly desirable to give each province certain latitude in adapting their rules of minor procedure to their needs. The latter consideration does not apply to a small homogeneous State like ours. But the first reason is equally important here as in British India. Moreover, after the institution of this Legislative Council, the mode of bringing about alterations in law has become somewhat more complicated than before, and it is unnecessary that changes in minor rules of procedure which are mainly based on reasons best appreciated by practical professional lawyers should be subjected to all the formalities of a passage through the regular legislative body of the State. There is another though comparatively unimportant advantage which practising lawyers will have,—they will find it easy to refer to reported decisions of the British Courts and to commentaries published in British India as authorities in the course of their pleading.

Turning now to the provisions of the Bill, as I have already mentioned, there are only a few alterations of the law as now in force. What these are may be easily found out by a reference to any good commentary on the Indian Code, of which many have already been published. They will no doubt be taken into due consideration by us before this Bill is finally passed. In the draft before you, we have merely made the verbal alterations required to apply the Code to our State. We have retained those few special provisions which are peculiar to Mysore. These can be easily discovered by referring to the sections whose numbers are given in the margin of the Bill, and more easily by going over the smaller paper in which the alterations made in the British Act are indicated. As examples of our local provisions, I may mention the explanation to Section 43; the exemption of members of the Barr and Sillhedar Forces from arrest, Section (55); the three clauses added to Section 60, of which the last relating to Military retiring fund is new; the omission of reference to suits against Government (clause 17); the allowing of second appeals on questions of fact (clause 21); the alteration of the pecuniary limit to bar second appeals (clause 22); and the insertion of a protective provision in favour of Judicial officers (clause 37). The list given for the constitution of the Rules Committee in Section 123 (clause 25) is a tentative one deserving further consideration before being finally adopted.

I now beg to move that permission may be kindly accorded to me to introduce this Bill to consolidate and amend the laws relating to the procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature.

MR. S. NARAYANA RAO seconded the motion and said :—

SIR,—There is one great advantage to both the Judges and Practitioners in this Province in having a Code of Civil Procedure similar in form to that in force in British India; they will often have to refer to decisions in other Courts and it will be easier for them to do so if the same form of the Code is adopted here also. There is, of course, not much difference between the old and the new Code. The new Code is virtually formulated on the same principle as the old. There are, of course, some departures in certain sections. These will receive full consideration in the Council.

MR. B. NAGAPPA.—It gives me great pleasure to support the motion just now made. It is not too early for us to have thought of such a measure. It ought to have been introduced much earlier. The Act came into force in British India on the 1st January 1909. As the learned mover has thought fit to embody in the Bill all the provisions which are peculiar to Mysore, especially those relating to second appeals on questions of fact and those relating to Sections 43 and 17, I think it ought to have the heartiest support of all the members of the Bar.

The motion was put to the Council and carried.

Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Limitation of Suits and for other purposes in Mysore.

In moving for leave to introduce the above Bill, Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya said :—

SIR,—I do myself the honour to move that leave may be granted to me to introduce a Bill for the consolidation and amendment of the Law of Limitation in Mysore. The proposed measure is mainly one of consolidation and opportunity is taken to introduce a few minor alterations required by the decisions of Courts on some disputed points. It is unnecessary to enter into any details at this stage.

The motion was seconded by Mr. S. Narayana Rao and supported by Mr. B. Nagappa. It was then put to the Council and carried.

Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to Insolvency in Mysore.

In moving for leave to introduce the above Bill, Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya said as follows :—

SIR,—The Law of Bankruptcy is a highly developed branch of commercial law in modern countries. Its main underlying principles are that an honest debtor who tries his best to honestly meet his obligations, but is unable to do so owing to circumstances beyond his control, shall not be for ever weighted down by the incubus of his debts, but may have a chance of retrieving his misfortunes by devoting himself afresh to some other business. It is true that in practice as many at least of dishonest men get the benefit of this law as those who have been scrupulous in their dealings and honorable in their intentions. The old-world idea, which fortunately is still entertained by not a few persons in our society, is that debt is a pious obligation which can be dissolved only by a substantial discharge; and many more persons are restrained from having recourse to the provisions of the Law of Bankruptcy by an active sense of the stigma that attaches to a discharged bankrupt.

Our present law on this subject is contained in Chapter XX of the Code of Civil Procedure; but it deals with the subject only in a fragmentary manner. It cannot be availed of except by a debtor who has been actually arrested in execution of a decree or by a creditor, who has already obtained a decree in his favor. But, under the proposed law, the remedy can be obtained both by debtors and by creditors in a larger number of cases. It is likely that as the spirit of speculation is largely wanting in the subjects of this State, Courts will not be resorted to in many cases. In such matters, example has a large influence in showing people that it would be an advantage to get rid of obligations they cannot possibly fulfil and to endeavour to restart in life unhampered by their burden, and in blunting their sense of honour. The lack of such examples fortunately is also likely to render the use of these new provisions rare for a long while. But as we have omitted the insolvency provisions in the new Bill, it is at any rate necessary that they should be either retained there or re-enacted in some other shape. It is just as well that we should have a fuller enactment, even though all the provisions may not immediately be required for practical application; and as the subject is one that does not readily fall within the proper scope of a law of ordinary Procedure of Courts, it is considered expedient to adopt the British Indian Act.

It is unnecessary to refer to the provisions of the Bill in detail at this stage. They will no doubt receive full consideration before being finally approved. I beg now to move that leave may be granted to me to introduce this Bill before the Council.

MR. S. NARAYANA RAO.—SIR,—In seconding this motion, I wish to state that the Bill to introduce the Civil Procedure Code which has just been adopted by this Council renders the introduction of the Insolvency Bill necessary, as Chapter XX of the old Code has been omitted in the new Code.

The motion was put to the Council and carried.

Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to Guardians and Wards in Mysore.

MR. K. S. CHANDRASEKHARA AIYAR.—SIR,—I beg to move for leave being granted to introduce a Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to Guardians and Wards in Mysore.

The law at present in force on the subject consists of certain Rules issued with the sanction of the Government of India so far back as 1872. These rules, which are applicable also to lunatics, have been found to be defective in several respects, and it is proposed to replace them (so far as they relate to the guardianship of minors) by a Regulation based on the provisions of the Guardians and Wards Act, VIII of 1890, of the Indian Legislature, which is fuller and more comprehensive and up to date.

The case of lunatics will be dealt with by separate legislation, and till then so much of the rules of 1872 as relate to this class of persons will have to be retained.

I do not wish to detain the Council with an account of the changes, verbal and other, that have had to be made in the process of adapting the provisions of the Indian Act to local purposes; a suitable occasion for this will arise when the Bill is actually introduced into the Council. But there is one point to which I may make a passing reference, as it concerns the age of majority under the new law. Under the existing rules this is fixed at 18 years. But the time appears to have come when the age of majority may advantageously be raised from 18 to 21, wherever possible; or at all events in those cases in which Courts have to provide for the guardianship of minors and their estates. The point is an important one which will no doubt receive the careful consideration of the Legislative Council when the Bill comes up for detailed discussion.

MR. H. V. NANJUNDAYYA.—I beg to second the motion. The only point for consideration is about the age of majority. This is an important point which will be considered before the Bill is adopted. As it will receive all the consideration that it deserves, it is unnecessary for me to deal with it at this stage.

The motion was put to the Council and carried.

Bill further to amend the Mysore Chief Court Regulation, I of 1884.

MR. H. V. NANJUNDAYYA.—SIR,—In Section 3 of Regulation I of 1884 relating to the Chief Court of Mysore, "Full Bench" is defined as a Bench consisting of all the Judges of the Chief Court. Lately, when it was found expedient to appoint a fourth Judge as a temporary measure, some difficulty was experienced in hearing cases before a Full Bench, as it was feared that if the Judges were equally divided there would be an impasse, as neither the Regulation nor the Code of Civil Procedure could solve the difficulty. The fourth paragraph of Section 575 which requires a decree to be affirmed when there is no majority which concurs in modifying or reversing it would have been sufficient; but, the last paragraph added in 1892 by Regulation VII giving preference to the provisions of the Chief Court Regulation in cases of conflict rendered this nugatory.

The difficulty, however, did not actually occur, as three Judges happened to concur, in the case which gave rise to the proposal of the Chief Court before us. At present there are only three Judges and the Government of His Highness the Maharaja has no present intention of adding to the number. Though the immediate necessity has thus passed away, still as some Courts which have a much larger number of Judges are satisfied with three as the number required to constitute a Full Bench, it is just as well that we should so alter the definition as to make this number sufficient. If the number of Judges remains as at present, there is no harm done; whereas if, in any future contingency, the number is increased either temporarily or permanently, we shall have a provision which would prevent the recurrence of the difficulty described.

I therefore take the liberty of moving that this Bill which consists of but one section to amend the Mysore Chief Court Regulation be read in Council.

Mr. S. Narayana Rao seconded the motion.

The motion was carried and the Bill was then read by the Secretary.

Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya then moved that the above Bill be not referred to a Select Committee and that the ordinary rules of business be suspended so as to permit of the Bill being considered and passed by the Council.

Mr. S. Narayana Rao seconded the motion which was put to the Council and carried.

Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya thereupon moved that the Bill be considered and passed by the Council. This was seconded by Mr. S. Narayana Rao.

The Bill was then discussed and passed by the Council.

Bill to recognize the representative character of the Administrator-General of Madras.

In moving that the above Bill be read in Council, Mr. Chandrasekhara Aiyar explained briefly, for the information of the members newly appointed, the reasons for the introduction thereof and observed that as the measure did not affect any private right adversely, and would not involve any loss of revenue to the State and as it was of a purely formal character intended merely to give effect to an understanding already reached as the result of exhaustive discussion, it might be considered and passed by the Council without a reference to a Select Committee.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Nagappa. The Bill was then read by the Secretary and considered by the Council.

After some discussion as to the effect of a competition between a person who has already taken out a probate or letters of administration in Mysore and the Administrator-General who intervenes later, Mr. Chandrasekhara Aiyar said :—

"As the result of the discussion we have had and on further consideration, I think it is advisable to consider the matter in detail in a Select Committee; and I therefore withdraw the motion just made and beg to move, instead, that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee consisting of Messrs. H. V. Nanjundayya, Rajamantrapravina C. Srinivasiengar, S. Narayana Rao, B. Nagappa and myself."

The motion was seconded by Mr. Syed Amir Hassan, was then put to the Council and carried.

As a result of the above, the motion for considering and passing the Bill was withdrawn.

Bill to provide for the regulation of the possession and sale of all poisons in certain local areas, and the importation, possession and sale of white arsenic generally in Mysore.

Mr. K. P. Puttanna Chetty.—Sir,—In presenting the report of the Select Committee on the Poisons Bill, I beg leave to make a few remarks. The Bill has undergone very little change at the hands of the Committee, and continues to be—what it originally was—an adaptation of the British Indian Act on the same subject. As I remarked in my opening speech, the only departure we have thought fit to make is in clause 10, sub-clause (2), of the Bill whereby the transactions of Medical and Veterinary practitioners and of Chemists and Druggists in poisonous drugs were sought to be brought under some sort of control. I need not repeat here the reasons for this departure. It is enough to remark that the Select Committee have, after due consideration, decided to retain this provision though they have slightly altered it so as to make its scope more definite and precise. It will be remembered that in the Bill as originally drafted all transactions of Medical and Veterinary practitioners and of Chemists and Druggists in poisonous drugs were sought to be regulated. It was brought to our notice that the word "transactions", was rather too wide and that for all practical purposes it would be quite sufficient to bring only the sales of poisonous drugs within the operation of clause 10, sub-clause (2). The Select Committee accepted this view and have accordingly slightly altered the language of this sub-clause.

I understand that it is usual for Medical and Veterinary practitioners to keep in their consulting room and carry in their "Medical Bags" small quantities of poisonous drugs for occasional use in the treatment of their patients. I may state here that the Bill does not make such possession illegal nor even does it seek to regulate or control such possession. These practitioners will bring themselves under the provisions of the Bill only if they should regularly sell such drugs to the outside public. It will thus be seen that we have safeguarded, as far as possible, the freedom now enjoyed by bonâ fide Medical and Veterinary practitioners. I may add that in this view Colonel Smyth, the Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner, entirely concurs. The other amendments made in the Bill are either verbal or consequential.

I now move that the report and the Bill as amended may be taken into consideration by the Council.

MR. S. NARAYANA RAO seconded the motion.

The report of the Select Committee and the Bill as amended by them were then discussed by the Council; and as a result of the discussion on the amendment made by the Committee in clause 10 (2), the Council resolved to take up the Bill for further consideration at a subsequent meeting.

The Council then adjourned.

T. ANANDA ROW,
President.

According to the usual procedure of appropriating the revenue of the Cauvery Power Scheme for redemption of loan and replenishment of the cash balance, the above difference should appear in the accounts thus :—

	Rs.
Set aside from Cauvery Power Scheme revenue for redemption of the 4 per cent loan of 20 lakhs	1,33,000
Net income from the Cauvery Power Scheme appropriated for replenishment of cash balance	11,12,000
Famine Insurance Reserve	70,000
Budget Deficit	—3,63,000
	9,52,000

Out of Rs. 2,00,000 proposed to be set apart for the Famine Insurance Reserve in the budget estimate, Rs. 1,30,000 had to be spent as direct expenditure in connection with the scarcity and the balance of Rs: 70,000 would, therefore be available under ordinary circumstances for being carried to the head Famine Insurance Reserve.

10. The revised is therefore 4,74,000 worse than the budget as far as the difference between receipt and expenditure is concerned and this, in spite of the revenue from the Cauvery Power Scheme being Rs. 35,000 in excess of the budget. The result under the other heads excluding the Cauvery Power Scheme is thus Rs. 5,09,000 worse in the revised. Of this sum 1,30,000 represents expenditure recorded under the head "Famine Relief"; and the balance 3,79,000 is the net difference on other heads of revenue and expenditure which has converted the surplus of Rs. 16,000 in the budget to a deficit of Rs. 3,63,000 in the revised estimate as above worked out.

Remissions, Suspensions and Advances.

11. The main reason for the unsatisfactory state of affairs referred to in preceding paragraph is, of course, the scarcity which prevailed during the year 1908-09 in parts of all the districts of the State but specially in Kolar and Tumkur. The two chief instruments which were employed by Government in combating the situation were adequate remissions and suspensions of land revenue and a liberal system of granting takavi and other advances to the raiyats wherever such help was considered necessary. The advance transactions do not affect the budget immediately though they have a very important bearing on the question of ways and means. But the effects of the remission and suspension measures of Government appear in the revised estimates of 1908-09 now presented in a very striking way. Thus under land revenue, against the budget estimate of 100 lakhs, the actual collections amount to only 89 lakhs; and under assessed taxes, i.e., mohatarfa and assessment on vacant building sites, the percentage of falling off is much larger, the collections being only 2 lakhs against the estimate of 3·18 lakhs. When it is considered that the high prices brought about chiefly by the unfavourable seasonal conditions of successive years press more severely on the non-agricultural population who pay the bulk of the assessed taxes than on the agricultural population, the necessity of liberal remission of mohatarfa for mitigating the acuteness of distress will be evident.

12. The relief which had to be given to the agricultural and non-agricultural classes in the way of remissions and suspensions has, therefore, reduced our revenue for 1908-09 by 12·18 lakhs, viz., 11 lakhs under Land Revenue and 1·18 lakhs under Assessed Taxes. The Forest revenue fell considerably below the budget estimate, the realizations according to the revised estimates being only 19·11 lakhs against the budget figure of 20·15 lakhs. The reason for the falling off was less demand for sandalwood which told both on the number of tons sold and the rate per ton realized. Considering, therefore, the three heads, Land Revenue, Assessed Taxes and Forests, the decrease in the revised estimates of 1908-09 was 13·22 lakhs when compared with the budget estimates.

Increase of Revenue under certain heads.

13. It is, therefore, quite clear that, had it not been for accidental and unexpected increase of revenue under certain heads, even the whole of the net revenue of the Cauvery Power Scheme (Rs. 11,12,000) would not have been sufficient to cover the decrease referred to in the foregoing paragraph. In that case, taking all sources of revenue into consideration, the year would have been one of a real and substantial deficit. As it is, however, we are exceptionally fortunate in some directions and the falling off of Rs. 13·22 lakhs in the revised as compared with the budget under Land Revenue, Assessed Taxes and Forests, is reduced to a large extent by increase under other heads. Thus Excise brings according to the revised estimates, Rs. 43·62 lakhs against the budget provision of 40·86 lakhs or 2·76 lakhs more; Stamps and Registration, 78 thousand more; Mining Royalty, 70 thousand more; Interest, 30 thousand more; and the Railway revenue account, 2·61 lakhs more. The increase under the head "Railway" is due chiefly to the operation of the revised agreement with the Southern Mahratta Railway Company entered into by the Secretary of State for India on behalf of this Government, under which nineteen-twentieths of the net revenue on all the lines belong to the Durbar instead of three-fourths of the net revenue on the Mysore-Harihar and the whole of the net revenue on the other lines as in the former agreement. As a result of these and other minor variations, the revenue receipts for 1908-09 stand, according to the revised estimate, at Rs. 222·46 lakhs instead of the budget figure Rs. 228·15 lakhs, i.e., Rs. 5·69 lakhs less.

Economy necessitated by Scarcity.

14. The variations of the revised from the budget figures on the expenditure side are less marked than on the receipt side, but those variations are not a correct index of the disturbing effects of the scarcity on the budget programme of the year. As soon as it was apprehended that considerable expenditure might become necessary during the course of the year to cope with the distress, the extent of which could not be gauged with precision, energetic steps were taken in all directions for securing the strictest economy; and the result is that in spite of considerable additional expenditure under almost all major heads owing to the scarcity, e.g., allowance to Government servants for extraordinary rise in prices of food grains, additional establishment, etc., the total expenditure for the year, according to the revised estimates is Rs. 2,12,94,000 against the budget figure of Rs. 2,13,89,000 i. e., Rs. 95,000 less. A comparison of the budget and revised estimate figures under the several major heads will show that the credit for having secured economy is shared by almost all the Departments of the State, and it is the exercise of such economy coupled with the fortunate increase in receipts under some of the revenue heads, such as Excise and Railway, which accounts for the fact of the State having got over a difficult year with so little impression on its finances.

Utilization of Surplus.

15. From para 9 above it is seen that the difference between receipt and expenditure for the year 1908-09, taking all sources of income into account, was Rs. 9,52,000. In that paragraph it was also stated how that difference would have appeared in the accounts under the system hitherto in force. Certain changes in the form of accounts have, however, been sanctioned in connection with the reorganization of the Cauvery Power Scheme accounts as explained in para 25 below. It has also been decided that the full amount of Rs. 2,00,000 should be taken to the credit of the Famine Insurance Reserve without deducting therefrom the expenditure on account of scarcity during the year. With these changes the sum of Rs. 9,52,000 will appear in the account as shown below :—

	Rs.
Set aside for redemption of the 4 per cent loan of 20 lakhs ...	1,33,000
Famine Insurance Reserve	2,00,000
Credited to the Cauvery Power Scheme Depreciation Fund ...	6,19,000
	9,52,000

Expenditure on account of Scarcity.

16. Before closing this brief review of the revised estimates of 1908-09, it is perhaps desirable to bring together the total expenditure incurred during the year from the General Revenues on account of scarcity. The following statement gives such information regarding amounts sanctioned and spent under the various heads :—

Budget Estimates for 1909-10.

17. For the year now current the total revenue is estimated at Rs. 2,32,93,000 and the total expenditure excluding liabilities to Reserve Funds, etc., at Rs. 2,20,42,000. The difference of Rs. 12,51,000 is intended for utilisation as follows :—

	Rs.
Sinking Fund Instalment on account of the 4 Per Cent Loan of 20 Lakhs	1,33,000
Famine Insurance Reserve	2,00,000
Contribution payable from the Cauvery Power Scheme Revenue of 1909-10 to the Depreciation Fund	3,09,000
Payment out of the net Cauvery Power Scheme Revenue of 1909-10 towards the arrears of the Depreciation Fund ...	5,54,000
Budget Surplus	55,000
	12,51,000

Revenue.

18. It is hoped that the seasonal and agricultural conditions of the year 1909-10 will be fair and the collection of the major portion of the suspended arrears of 1908-09 is anticipated. The estimate of Land Revenue is therefore placed at Rs. 1,03,39,000. The revenue from Excise during 1908-09 is somewhat high, according to the Revised Estimate, but for purposes of the Budget for 1909-10 it has not been considered safe to place the estimate higher than at Rs. 40,50,000. The estimates under the other heads are normal and do not call for any remarks.

Expenditure.

19. On the expenditure side the noticeable increases as compared with the revised estimate for 1908-09 appear under Education, Medical and Miscellaneous. The expenditure on Education is naturally an expanding item and the allotments made for additional grants to Aided Schools, increased staff provided for Government Schools and the arrangements necessary for adapting the two Colleges to the New University Regulations account for the increase of about a lakh over the revised estimate for 1908-09. The increase in the Medical budget is chiefly under "Sanitation and Vaccination" and is due to the additional expenditure entailed by the Scheme sanctioned for the organization of a Public Health Department. The estimate under "Miscellaneous" includes provision for some special charges to be incurred during 1909-10.

20. The estimates under the heads, 28. Famine Relief, 29. Reduction or Avoidance of debt, 30. State Railways—Revenue Account, 34. Construction of Railways, 35. Cauvery Power Scheme Revenue Account, and 36. Cauvery Power Scheme Capital Outlay, require some explanation.

The Famine Reserve.

21. In February 1907 the Government resolved to set aside annually a sum of at least two lakhs with a view to form a reserve to be drawn upon in the event of a famine and the resolution has been given effect to from the year 1906-07. On the 30th June 1909 the amount to the credit of the Famine Reserve was six lakhs and in the budget for 1909-10 provision has been made for adding to the said reserve another sum of two lakhs. There was some special expenditure in connection with the distress last year, but as it was not for meeting a severe and widespread famine but only for affording relief in a period of drought, and as it was also found possible to meet such expenditure by effecting savings on other grants, it was not considered advisable to utilize any portion of the Famine Reserve, and accordingly the whole of the Famine Reserve allotment of two lakhs for 1908-09 was added to the Reserve. Following the policy of securing an annual accretion to the Famine Fund, a sum of two lakhs has been budgetted for in the estimates for 1909-10 and entered under "28. Famine Relief." In the event of there being any need for incurring expenditure on measures of famine relief such portion of this provision and of the accumulated reserve as may be required will be drawn upon; otherwise the saving will be carried to the credit of the Famine Reserve.

The Four Per Cent Loan Sinking Fund.

22. In 1906-07 a loan of 20 lakhs was raised mainly with a view to finance the third installation of the Cauvery Power Scheme. This loan carries interest at 4 per cent and is due for discharge after the expiry of 15 years, i.e., on the 1st October 1921. To provide for the redemption of this debt a Sinking Fund has been formed since the year of the loan by effecting a saving in the annual budgets of an amount equal to one-fifteenth part of the loan. On the 30th June 1909 there was to the credit of this Sinking Fund a sum of 4 lakhs. In the budget for 1909-10 provision has been made for payment into the said fund the fourth instalment of Rs. 1,33,000 which appears under "29. Reduction or Avoidance of Debt."

Railway Expenditure.

23. The estimate of Rs. 7,20,000 under "30. State Railways—Revenue Account" is the annual interest charge payable on the debt of £1,200,000 borrowed through the Secretary of State for constructing the railway line from Gubbi to Harihar. This debt is redeemable on the 1st March 1936 and a Sinking Fund was formed in 1899-1900 by investing a sum of Rs. 50,81,500 in the Government of India

Securities, which, accumulating at compound interest will be sufficient for discharging the loan when its payment falls due. In the meantime the annual interest on the loan has to be regularly provided for in our estimates.

24. The amount of 3 lakhs entered under "34. construction of Railways" represents the provision for capital expenditure to be incurred in 1909-10 on account of new engines, rolling stock, etc., required for working the open State Railways. As a matter of fact the capital expenditure on Railways during the year 1909-10 will be considerably over 4 lakhs; but as some amount is expected to be available out of deposits made with the Southern Mahratta Railway Company on account of stores in previous years, a sum of only 3 lakhs has been provided for in the budget. A large programme of capital works, including renewal of rails and improvements and additions to almost every kind of rolling stock is in hand and the outlay under this head for a few years to come is likely to be heavy.

Cauvery Power Scheme Accounts.

25. The question of placing the accounts of the Cauvery Power Scheme on a satisfactory footing was long under the consideration of Government, and it was settled in January last after taking the advice of Messrs. Lovelock and Lewis, Chartered Accountants, Calcutta, and of a committee of local officers representing the Electrical, Engineering and Account Departments, appointed for reporting on the matter. It has been decided that the accounts should be kept substantially on commercial lines and a Depreciation Fund account opened for arriving at the true measure of profit accruing to Government on the concern. Under this arrangement, the contribution to the Depreciation Fund should come from the annual revenue from the Cauvery Power Scheme, on which it is a legitimate charge. The extent of depreciation of the buildings, machinery, etc., from the date of completion of each part to the end of 1908-09 has been calculated and the amount comes to about Rs. 14,76,000. To make up this amount it is proposed to pay to the Depreciation Fund Account the entire surplus of 1908-09, viz., Rs. 6,19,000 as also a sum of Rs. 5,54,000 out of the net revenue from the scheme for 1909-10. To bring the fund to the level at which it should stand only a sum of about 3 lakhs more is required and it will be paid out of the net revenue from the scheme for 1910-11. The contribution payable for 1909-10 is Rs. 3,09,000 and this will be met from the revenue for that year. The estimate of Rs. 12,86,000 entered under "35.—Cauvery Power Scheme Revenue Account," on the expenditure side consists of the following items:—

	Rs.
Working Expenses	4,23,000
Depreciation Fund—
Contribution for 1909-10	3,09,000
Amount paid from the net revenue from the scheme for 1909-10 towards the arrears due to the fund up to the 30th June 1908..	5,54,000
Total ...	12,86,000

The first item mentioned above represents the establishment and other charges required for working the concern.

26. During 1909-10 an expenditure of Rs. 2,01,000 has been sanctioned for capital works, chiefly in connection with the lighting schemes of the Bangalore and Mysore cities and the estimate on this account appears under "36. Cauvery Power Scheme —Capital Outlay."

Public Works.

27. In January 1909, the Government after a very careful consideration of the financial capacity of the State fixed the normal grant for Public Works in the State at a little over 25 lakhs. As, however, two very large works, viz., the Palace at Mysore and the Marikanave project, are still going on and as it is desirable to complete them as soon as practicable, it has been found impossible this year to restrict the Public Works Grant to the normal amount fixed by Government. The total grant for the year 1909-10 stands at Rs. 28,21,000, besides the grant of Rs. 2,72,758 to the Mysore City Improvement Trust, the work in connection with which is also chiefly of the nature of Public Works.

538

28. Among the more important original-works for which allotments have been included in the estimates of the current year, are the following :—

	Name of Work.	Allotment. Rs.
1.	Marikanave Reservoir ...	1,53,000
2.	Improving and extending the Hemagiri Channel	10,000
3.	Improving and extending the Mandigere Channel	25,000
4.	Restoring the slipped portions of the Ramasagara tank ...	20,000
5.	Constructing a new tank at Sowlanga	18,000
6.	Constructing a new Sandal Koti at Shimoga	15,000
7.	Constructing new Taluk Cutcherries at Chitaldrug and Hgnnadi ...	20,000
8.	Additions to and alterations of the Bangalore Central College building	1,00,000
9.	Constructing a new building for the Bangalore High School ...	20,000
10.	Constructing the Chamarajendra Technical Institute at Mysore ...	50,000
11.	Constructing a building for the Eye-Infirmary at Bangalore ...	45,000
12.	The New Palace at Mysore	2,39,000
13.	Bangalore City Extension Works including Water-Supply ...	73,000
14.	Bangalore City Drainage Works	43,000
15.	Shimoga Extension and Water-Supply Projects	65,000
16.	Mysore City Water Supply Works	20,000
17.	Water-Supply to Mudgere	7,000
18.	Reconstructing the old Silledar lines at Bangalore	20,000

It should be noted that the allotments represent the amount proposed to be spent on each work, during the year 1909-10 and gives no indication of the total expenditure on each.

29. For facility of reference a brief abstract of the Public Works budget is included (for the first time this year) in the Civil Budget Estimates. A detailed Budget Estimate of Revenue and Expenditure under Public Works in the Mysore State is, however, printed and published separately, which may be referred to for information on any point relating to the expenditure on any particular work or particular class of works.

Local Funds.

30. It may perhaps be useful to mention in connection with the budget estimates herewith published that they represent only that portion of the public revenue and expenditure which appertains to the General Revenues. The transactions of the various Local Funds, e.g., the Local-Funds General, the District Funds, the Municipal Funds, the Irrigation Cess Fund and the Village School Fund, do not find a place here. When revenue derived from special sources is devoted to special objects and not to the general purposes of the administration, the revenue so devoted forms a Local Fund. And though in some cases there is difference in matters of administration and control between transactions affecting the General Revenues and those affecting the Local Funds, the transactions included in the latter are nevertheless an integral part of the financial operations of the State. Thus in addition to the 28·21 lakhs which represents the grant for Public Works from the General Revenues and 2·72 lakhs which is the grant from the same source to the Mysore City Improvement Trust, considerable sums are spent on local public works from many of the Local Funds referred to above. Thus the Municipal Funds maintain and develop roads and other public works within municipalities; the Irrigation Cess Fund is concerned with keeping some of the tanks and channels in repair; the District Funds look after the minor roads and other public works of local utility within the district; and the Village School Fund maintains, constructs and improves village school buildings. Similarly many of these funds materially supplement the expenditure from the General Revenues for education, sanitation, medical relief, etc. Detailed estimates of each of these

Local Funds are separately printed; but to give a general idea of the transactions of each Local Fund or class of Local Funds an abstract showing their estimated transactions during the year 1909-10 is given below :—

Conclusion.

31. From para 17 above it will appear that according to the budget estimates of the year 1909-10 our receipts from all sources will be Rs. 12,51,000 in excess of the amount required for immediate expenditure during the year. At first sight the position might seem to be one of excessive surplus and the charge might be laid against the Government that they are taking more from the people than what is really required for the work of administration. But a little consideration will show that the situation is not exactly one of large surplus; for it is not sufficient to take only the immediate current expenditure of the State into account. The reserve funds and other liabilities have also to be considered. We owe a debt of 20 lakhs repayable in 1921 and we must make provision for its repayment; we must lay by something to combat a famine when it comes upon the State; we must build up a depreciation fund for the Cauvery power plant so as to be sure that we are not using up the capital invested in it. And when provision even on a modest scale is made for these requirements, the surplus sinks to a much lower figure. Again, if it is remembered that there are other reserves which it is certainly desirable to build up, e.g., the reserve for large items of non-recurring expenditure, the reserve for railway extensions, etc., but towards which no grants can be assigned under existing financial conditions, the situation would appear to be far from one of an unnecessarily large surplus. On the other hand, as the whole of the mining revenue and a considerable part of the Cauvery power revenue have to be utilized for providing for the modest and indispensable reserves, the situation, if we look sufficiently long ahead, is one which requires careful attention and exercise of the strictest economy. We cannot afford to ignore the fact that a considerable part of the revenue from the Mines and the Cauvery scheme is, to some extent, uncertain or unreliable; and when along with that fact we see that without those sources of revenue our budget, even with all purely optional items of expenditure eliminated, would show a heavy balance on the wrong side, we cannot too strongly emphasise the fact that in our present financial condition there is necessity for the greatest restraint as regards increasing the permanent recurring expenditure of the State and incurring expenditure upon matters which bring no palpable benefit to the people.

Notifications by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

GENERAL AND REVENUE.

No. FL. 1268—G. F. 86-09-1, DATED BANGALORE, 24TH AUGUST 1909.

ORDER.—Under the system hitherto in force, the financial programme of Government for any particular official year was announced by the Dewan in his speech to the Representative Assembly in September or October of that year, i.e., after three or four months of the year had elapsed. A copy of the State Budget was also laid on the table of the Assembly for the information of the Representatives and through them, of the public. The facts connected with the financial administration for any year thus came to the knowledge of the public rather late in the year and information furnished was by that time stale. Under these circumstances the Government have resolved that with effect from the year 1909-10 the State Budget should be published in the official Gazette at the earliest possible date after it is finally passed by His Highness the Maharaja. This procedure, it is hoped, will enable the public and the Representative Assembly to become acquainted with all the details of the financial programme of the year in good time.

2. Accordingly the State Budget for 1909-10 with a brief financial statement explaining its salient features was published in an extraordinary issue of the Mysore Gazette on 6th September 1909.

No. 2710—Ml. 559-07-47, dated 16*th September* 1909.

Whereas by a proclamation of the 20th March 1909, published on the 8th April 1909 at page 453 in English and at pages 174-5 in Kannada of the Mysore Gazette, Part II of 1909, it was duly announced under Section 8 of the Municipal Regulation, VII of 1906, that it was proposed under Section 4 of the said Regulation to constitute the town of Closepet the local area comprised within the limits specified in that proclamation, into a Municipality, and whereas no objections have been made to the said proposal, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by Section 4 (i) of the said Regulation, to constitute the said Closepet Town into a permanent Municipality and to declare that the boundary of the said Municipality shall, on and from the 1st October 1909, be as shown hereunder :—

I. The boundary line of the town of Closepet commences at the north-western corner of Survey No. 168, touching the Mysore-Bangalore road and runs along the western boundary line of Survey Nos. 168, 169, 170, 171, 172 and 173, where it crosses the "voni" leading to Amanikere of Kottipur village, runs along the western boundary of Survey Nos. 186 and 32. Here it turns towards the east and passes along the western and a portion of southern boundary of Survey No. 32 till it crosses the "voni" leading to Kottipur village, from thence it continues to run along the western boundary of Survey No. 31 till it crosses the Mysore-Bangalore Railway line and then it skirts round the Holagere, running along the southern boundary of Survey No. 30, along the western boundary of Survey No. 203, crosses the foot-path to Hunasanhalli, turns to the west and runs along the western boundary of Survey Nos. 103 and 29 till it reaches the northern boundary of Survey No. 73 and crossing again the above said Railway line it meets Survey No. 72 at its north-eastern corner. The line then turning southwards continues to run along the eastern boundary of Survey Nos. 72, 71, 27 and 63 bordering all along the Mysore-Bangalore Railway line, and joins the north-eastern corner of Survey No. 62.

II. From this point the line continues to pass along the northern boundary of Survey Nos. 62 and 52, crosses the "voni" to the river Arkavati, skirts on the southern, eastern and northern boundaries of Survey No. 51, crosses another "voni" to the river Arkavati. The line then skirts on the southern, eastern and northern boundaries of Survey No. 26, passes along the eastern boundary of Survey Nos. 25 and 23 crossing another "voni" between these two numbers. It runs along the northern boundary also of Survey No. 23, till it crosses the "voni" to the river. Thence it passes along the southern boundary of Survey No. 22 crosses the "voni" to the river, passes along the southern and eastern boundary of Survey No. 20 and along the eastern and northern boundary of Survey No. 19. It skirts on the southern, eastern and northern boundary of Survey No. 17 and continues to run along the eastern boundary of Survey Nos. 16, 15, 14, 11, 10, 9 and 8 after crossing two "vonis" to the river Arkavati, between Survey Nos. 14, 11 and 10. The line then skirting on three sides of Survey No. 33, passes along the north-eastern boundary of Survey No. 116 along the eastern and northern boundary of Survey No. 7 and along the southern, eastern and northern boundaries of Survey No. 6 where it meets the Mysore-Bangalore road near the bridge across the river Arkavati.

III. The boundary line then crossing the Mysore-Bangalore road, passes along the western boundary of Survey Nos. 117 and 118 and along the eastern bed of the Arkavati till it meets the south-western boundary of Survey No. 119. From this point, it runs along the western boundary of Survey Nos. 119 and 5. The line then turning to the east passes along the southern and eastern boundary of Survey No. 120 and along the eastern boundary of Survey Nos. 123 and 124 after crossing the "voni" to the river, between the above said two numbers. The line then turns to the east and passes along the southern and eastern boundary of Survey No. 4 crosses the "voni" to the Arkavati, passes along the southern and eastern boundary of Survey No. 133 and along the eastern boundary of Survey No. 136 crossing again the "voni" to the river, passes along the southern boundary of Survey No. 139 and runs along the western and northern boundary of Survey No. 1 and continues to run along the southern boundary of Survey No. 140 and running to some distance along the foot-path to Vaderhalli, it crosses the said foot-path and passes along the northern boundary of Survey No. 141; the line then crosses the Mysore-Bangalore road and meets the north-western corner of Survey No. 168.

From this it will be seen that the town of Closepet will include the undermentioned lands.
